comprehensive and up-to-date guide to American and British special forces, covering all aspects of their equipment, training and deployment in the Iraq age of warfare. It takes a special kind of person to join the Special Forces and those to pass the stringent entrance requirements are subjected to the most rigorous training. They're trained to be super-fit, taught to survive in the most adverse conditions, and turned into killing machines. This book reveals what makes these men tick, and everything you need to know to become one of them. It covers all the types of training required - for fitness, combat, survival, navigation, communication, infiltration, interrogation, extraction and evasion. And it details the full array of weapons used, from small arms and knives to explosives and air back-up. Also included are full listings of all the units - including the SAS, Green Berets, SBS, Navy SEALs, Delta Force, Army Rangers - and their deployment in present-day conflicts such as Desert Storm, Somalia, Afghanistan, Iraq and anti-terrorist operations.

A Novel/ A&C Black
A vampire's job is never done. Stryke's a demon who's harbored a massive crush on Zoey. Will he get a happily ever after with the vampire? Melody's an innocent human with a massive crush on Creed. But when she absorbs demon energy, can she gain control of herself and her new power to keep from being enemy number one? Bastian's a butler who teams up with Ophelia, but are they enough to keep his charge safe? The second New Vampire Disorder box set contains books 4-6. Creating Multi-sensory Environments Xlibris Corporation One of Library Journal's Best Books of 2018 In Handmade Houseplants, expert crafter and tastemaker Corrie Beth Hogg offers a no-water option for your urban jungle: plants made from paper!

 Experiential journalist Rak Razam sets out to document the thriving business of 21st-century hallucinogenic shamanism starting with a trip to the annual Amazonian

Shaman Conference in Iquitos, Peru, where he meets a motley crew of "spiritual tourists," rogue scientists, black magicians, and indigenous and Western healers and guides, all in town to partake of the ritual--and the medicine--of ayahuasca, "the vine of souls." Combining his personal story with the history of Amazonian shamanism, Razam takes the reader along on an entertaining, enlightening adventure. In areas of Brazil, Ecuador, and Peru, the traditional herbal brew known as ayahuasca or yajé is legally used to heal physical ailments and to cleanse and purify the spirit by connecting it to the web of life. Sting and Tori Amos have admitted sampling it in Latin America, as has Paul Simon, who chronicled the experience in his song "Spirit Voices."

A literary novel set on the coast of Maine during the 1960s, tracing the life of a family and its matriarch as they negotiate sharing a home. Eleanor Morse's Margreete's Harbor begins with a fire: a fiercely-independent, thrice-widowed woman living on her own in a rambling house near the Maine coast forgets a hot pan on the stovetop,

and nearly
burns her
place down.
When

Anderson, Dune: The Lady of Caladan is a brand new novel in the internationally bestselling Dune series. Lady Jessica, mother of Paul, and consort to

Leto Atrides. The choices she made shaped an empire, but first the Lady of Caladan must reckon with her own betrayal of the Bene Gesserit. She has already betrayed her ancient order, but now she must decide if her loyalty to the Sisterhood is more important than the love of her own family. Meanwhile, events in the greater empire are accelerating beyond the control of even the Reverend Mother, and Lady Jessica's family is on a collision course with destiny. There are now twenty-six millennials in Congress--a fivefold increase gained in the 2018 midterms alone. They are governing Midwestern cities and college towns, running for city councils, and serving in state legislatures. They are acting urgently on climate change (because they are going to live it); they care deeply about student debt (because they have it); they are utilizing big tech but still want to regulate it (because they understand how it works). In The Ones We've Been Waiting For, TIME correspondent Charlotte Alter defines the class of young leaders who are remaking the nation-- how grappling with 9/11 as teens, serving in Iraq and Afghanistan, occupying Wall Street and protesting with Black Lives Matter, and shouldering their way into a financially rigged political system has shaped the people who will govern the future. Through the experiences of millennial leaders--from progressive firebrand Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez to Democratic hopeful Pete Buttigieg to Republican up-and-comer Elise Stefanik--Charlotte Alter gives the big-picture look at how this generation governs differently than their elders, and how they may drag us out of our current

 always lived
 for the Dance.
 She expressed
 her very soul
 through the
 sinuous,
 mystic
 movements
 that were as
 old as the East
 itself. Like all
 true artists
 she was a
 perfectionist.
 Her mind, as
 lithe as her
 body, was
 always
 searching for
 new material.
 At last she discovered a
 temple, old
 and deserted,
 hidden by
 Time and the
 mysterious,
 impenetrable

jungle. In the temple she saw a series of
 carvings
 depicting an ancient sacred
 dance. It was a dance such
 as she had never
 imagined
 possible.
 Slowly at first
 and then with increasing
 speed she
 began to copy
 the
 movements
 recorded so
 faithfully by
 the timeless
 stone. A
 strange
 feeling
 possessed her
 as the rhythm
 of the ancient
 dance
 obsessed her
 whole being.
 Dark beings of

terrifying
supernatural
aspect glided
from the
crumbling
walls an joined in the ancient rhythm. Not until it was too
late did Valli
realise that
the Forbidden
Dance had
resurrected
forces of
cosmic evil
which had been sleeping
in the lost
temple.

Charismatic

It's only his first conquest, one that impels Cornelius on a journey of rescue through Manhattan—from street brawls to calamitous affairs, from a hooker's fury to murder, from the subway sewers of a dirty city to its towering castles. But how long can the acquired charms of the prince last, how long can he care, and who'll be there to rescue him? In Cornelius Christian, who sings of life's goodness in the wake of disaster, J. P. Donleavy, author of the legendary The Ginger Man, created one of his most indelible, infuriating, and irresistible characters—"a parody of the fairy tale hero, lusting after princesses in honky-tonk New York" (The Harvard Crimson).
