Color Decorated Living Christmas Trees Islandport Press

As the first rays of the sun peek over nature's valley, a redheaded woodpecker busily drills, a doe's hooves make crunching sounds in the snow, and two Christmas trees--one perfect and one not so perfect--wait for someone to choose them, and hopefully not for firewood. Runt's needles are multi-colored and not two of his branches are the same size. Grace is perfectly shaped without a blemish or pine cone to scar her profile. As they anxiously wait, Davey and his parents head into the woods to find the perfect tree. But after they choose Grace and haul her home, Runt is left alone without a purpose--or so he thinks. In this delightful holiday tale for children, nature shares a simple and beautiful lesson about the true meaning of the Christmas spirit.

How to Grow Christmas Trees in the South Candlewick Press

The Giannettis have developed a home design style that embraces age, patina, weathered and worn surfaces, and rough surfaces. Patina Style is a color palette, a romance with subtlety, an attraction to natural materials and architectural details. It is at once old-world, contemporary, and mildly industrial. Patina Style gives insight into materials choices, methods and treatments that result in spaces that celebrate beauty in the old, the imperfect, the slightly roughed-up.

Today, many people still bring a real fir tree into their home at Christmastime, or an artificial tree that may come in any color including green, silver, or pink. Written with age-appropriate language and content, this book explains the symbolism behind our use of Christmas trees today and the many famous trees readers may know, including the huge tree at Rockefeller Center in New York City.

Families who put up Christmas trees need this story! It is Christmas time and the pine trees are sprucing up. They are cleaning nests from their branches, patching holes in their trunks, and telling the forest animals to find other places to live. Why? Mother Nature will visit soon to choose the most spectacular tree as this year's Christmas tree. Mother Nature expects the trees to be clean, green, tall, and straight. This causes a problem for Selena Squirrel, Miss Chickadee, Momma Deer, and other animals of the forest. One tree, however, is willing to help. Little Pine tells the animals that he can be their new home. This fixes one problem, but causes another. Mother Nature does not like messy trees, and Little Pine is messy.
