 We have already covered scoring for the respective BMAT Section 1 and Section 2. For those without the time to read the articles, Sections 1 and 2 give one raw mark per question. These marks are then converted onto the BMAT scale which runs from 1 (low) to 9 (high). The official Cambridge Admissions Testing website for the BMAT exam states that: BMAT Score Conversion Chart | Acrosophy
 In BMAT Sections 1 and 2, each question is worth 1 mark (Section 1 has 32 multiple choice questions (previously 35), and Section 2 has 27 multiple choice questions). The raw marks from these sections are converted into a score from 1 (lowest) to 9 (highest), allowing marks to be compared between candidates.
