The Key of Love Multnomah

Jesus. Holy or human? According to the Bible, he was-and is-both. Fully God and fully man. Our next door Savior. The Christ of your galaxies is the Christ of your Mondays. The Starmaker manages your travel schedule. Relax. You have a friend in high places. There is no person he won't touch. No place he won't go to find you. For even though he is in heaven, he never left the neighborhood. The Next Door Savior Participant's Guide is the perfect companion for users of the Next Door Savior Group Study Kit. On the Study Kit DVDs Max Lucado personally teaches what it means for Christ to be our next door Savior. The six lessons in this Participant's Guide correspond with the six lessons in the Study Kit. Every teacher who uses the Study Kit will want each of their class members to have and use a Participant's Guide, for it's in the Bible study and self-reflection questions of this Participant's Guide that each class member will have the opportunity to really learn what it means for our Savior to be "near enough to touch, and strong enough to trust."

Healing for the Soul, a moving and inspiring collection of contemporary poems composed by Dr. Jerron C. Hill, gracefully and thoughtfully addresses modern-day challenges common to believers and non-believers alike. Following a supernatural encounter with the Lord Jesus Christ in 1984 at the age of 23, Dr. Hill subsequently became a devoted follower. In 2009, he experienced a vision of himself writing poetry shortly before awakening from sleep, and proceeded to write eleven poems that very same weekend, as well as numerous other compositions for two years thereafter. The author was not, however, released by God at that time to publish these poems. In August of 2020, the Holy Spirit inspired Dr. Hill to once again begin writing poetry, and he found himself composing these works with a passion and fiery dedication that strongly mimicked the way an evangelist would fervently deliver a Sunday morning sermon. The poems demand attention, compelling the reader to engage in personal introspection and reflection, and enjoining each person to place hope in the prospect of not only a meaningful life lived today, but for the promise of lasting goodness and eternity as well. Each composition culminates in a heartfelt plea to trust in Jesus and repent from sin. The author makes it clear, both through his own journey and the wisdom of Scripture, that Jesus changes lives, heals the brokenhearted and resuscitates broken relationships. Many people today feel lost, confused and even hopeless. By immersing oneself in the beauty and power of Dr. Hill's enlivening words, one will come to the unequivocal awareness that Christ is the answer and way to approach and surmount life's difficulties. Eternity is forever and God is inviting everyone to be born again by accepting his son's sacrifice on the cross. Healing for the Soul will inevitably leave the reader pondering the most pressing question of all time: Where will you spend eternity? With the help of this uplifting compilation, the answer to that question will reveal itself to all who choose to hear their message.

As a spiritual slumber is being shaken off God's people, many are awakening to find their families have been taken captive, their finances stolen, their ministries stagnant or failing, or their dreams neutralized, and they are without help. Rising from Defeat is a solid handbook for the overcomer. Based on Biblical principles and personal testimonies, you will learn how to get over the issues from the past and cooperate with God to fulfill your destiny. Learn how to break free from the entanglement of things that hold you back and how to get out of the rut to move on in a closer walk with God. This book contains keys that will make it possible. Sherry Anderson has been active in ministry for many years both in the church and as a leader in Aglow International. She is an intercessor with a strong prophetic anointing. Her passion is to see the truth set people free! Ministering in a very transparent way, she uses personal life experiences along with the Word, to teach God's ways. She mentors others, to hear the voice of God, to develop an intimate relationship with Him and to interpret dreams.

Flee or Fight? You experience adversity. You know what it is like to endure hardship. You hold on, buckle down, and ride the wave of bad fortune, praying you will make it out alive. You just do what it takes to survive. But what if these trials had the raw potential to change your life? What if the challenges you face could propel you to the next level of faith and maturity? What if you were designed to thrive in adversity, not merely "get by?" John Bevere wants to take you on a journey to unlock your tenacity. As he recounts the stories of Jesus and John the Baptist, as well as those of many contemporary believers, he presents a powerful pattern: These pillars of faith do not just hang on and survive troubles. They look adversity in the face and stare it down. Armed with the truth in the Word and the power of prayer, you, too, can join the determined ranks of the army of God. Will you fight relentlessly? Learn today how to fight, never give up, and enjoy all God has for you. "John Bevere has a mandate on his life to serve the body of Christ. His desire to see everyone find and flourish in their God-given destiny is evident in his teachings. His love for Christ and deep revelation of the Word of God will have you pursuing the cause of Christ, relentlessly." --Brian and Bobbie Houston, senior pastors, Hillsong Church

The story of the Tower of Babel. Is it just a simple narration included in the Bible solely to explain why there are so many different languages in the world, or is there more to it than that? As it turns out there is... much more! The author reveals how the account of the Tower of Babel in Genesis chapter 11 contains a timely, powerful, prophetic message to the Church as a whole, and to your local church in particular. It is a message of warning and preparation in this time of God's great end-time harvest.

Walking in Faith...even when times are tough. In Thrive, author and teacher Jen Cowart helps women develop the habits and attitudes necessary to thrive, whatever their circumstances. Leading readers through the Book of James, a letter written about enduring hardships, she lifts up six characteristics of mature Christians. From endurance and humility to controlling our words, Jen helps participants find the divine and the practical in living faithfully. Jen's teaching has inspired thousands of women across the country. Her authenticity inspires others to open their hearts and minds. One reviewer wrote, "Her 'realness' and her vulnerability just work together to open your heart to dig deeper and deeper." Through this study, women will find inspiration and tools around six traits: Endurance - Embracing obstacles as a means to maturity. Wisdom - Using a heavenly perspective on earthly issues. Action - Living a life where actions match faith. Control - Taming the tongue. Humility - Developing the attitude of Christ. Prayer - Exercising the power tool of the faith. Additional components for this six-week Bible study, each available separately, are a Leader Guide and six video sessions, 8 to 13 minutes long (with closed captioning).

An amazing true story of how the author E. Michal Gayer, through the application of Biblical healing principles, was healed from an aggressive, incurable, life-threatening brain tumor. This account takes Biblical understanding beyond the surface to the deep, intimate, personal level where we live. Michal writes in such a clear way that even the most difficult to comprehend spiritual concepts are made meaningful and easy to grasp. In this book Michal discusses many nuances to Biblical healing that are rarely addressed and spiritual steps that can be taken to appropriate healing. The book answers many of the questions that surround Biblical healing and is a much sought-after assist to people struggling to receive healing from God.

Writing for Jesus HarperChristian Resources

Written by a non-scholar The writer is not presenting himself as a bible scholar, nor does he present himself to be anything other than what he is --- a Christian who has been observant, generally without a judgmental eye, but wondering why we do what we do and how can we do better to exemplify Christ in our lives; and, why should we? The main body of the book is a prose designed to present Jesus from the beginning through the end of time as described in the Bible. From the perspective of one whose chosen behavior resulted in the need of the Savior, the writer presents the true perspective of being personally responsible and personally participating in as well as observing the barbaric crucifixion process Jesus suffered to provide Himself as the chosen Lamb of God. Each verse of the prose is supported by scripture and each scripture is presented to the reader using five translations for the reader's convenience for comparisons. The writer's hope is for the reader to study the scriptures, compare them from different translations, view them in context of the surrounding verses, and more clearly see how Jesus is presented to us in the Bible. "Who is, This JESUS" began several years ago as a song to praise the Lord for who He is and what HE has chosen to do for mankind. With time, more verses were added until they would not fit in as a song, so it changed to a poem, and then more were added until the rhyming was not consistent, thus the author has chosen to consider it a prose. Please read it as though someone is speaking it rather than as an English composition. Some punctuations, capitalizations, etc., are for emphasis and hopefully will not confuse you. The first presentation is without footnotes intentionally for fluidity of reading. The second presents footnotes to validate each phrase or sentence as being supported by scripture. Then, are the scriptures coordinated with the footnotes to simplify the access of scripture for the reader. Following the prose, the writer gives his personal opinion as a non-scholar as to how to apply Biblical truth into daily life and why we should pursue doing so; followed by two poems written by the author for the enjoyment and hopefully encouragement of the reader. This book is the result of many years of study and prayer, meditating on the Word, making notes, and assembling those notes into something that I believe will be a blessing to others who are seeking God in their lives. I discovered that God was telling me, in Matthew 6:33, to "seek first of all the Kingdom of God and all of His righteousness." And when I went looking, I wasn't able to find anybody who knew much of anything about what I was asking. So I set out to remedy that situation. And in doing so, I had to learn early on that I had to have a total dependency upon God to give me the answers I was seeking. I had to yield to the Holy Spirit who lives in me, because one can't get spiritual answers from the physical. I had to learn to differentiate between the Holy Spirit and the devil talking to me. I had to learn to walk by faith, to step out and obey God. I had to learn that, as I read the Word of God, my trust in Him and my faith would grow and go beyond what I could ever ask or think. The Key of Love is designed to be a study guide to get you from where you are to where God wants you to be. Have your Bible with you as you read, and take the time to look up and study the numerous references to scripture herein, as well as cross-references, which appear in parentheses following many of the Bible quotations. If you experience a closer walk with God, you will come to know God and to understand just how much He loves and cares for you. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you as you study (John 16:13). Look up each scripture, read several verses before and after the noted verse, and study it, meditate on it, and let the Word of God be your final judge. God has sent the Holy Spirit into your life to guide you unto all truth (John 16:13, I Thessalonians 5:21). Take full advantage of all that God has provided for you to make your life everything that He has created it to be. To understand God one must understand that there are Keys to the Kingdom of Heaven that unlock the mystery of how we can know God and achieve what he has planned for us! I Have Plans for Your Life God Abbott Press

Standing Under the Wrong Rainbow entwines insights from the Bible with the opinions of the author, G. Deon Thompson, to make the case for the durability of the traditional view of marriage as the lifelong union of one woman and one man, while exposing the shortcomings of modern arguments that speak in favor of gay marriage. Chapters treat a variety of topics, including the history of the notion of "rights," the scriptural grounding for the traditional morality of marriage, philosophies of truth, the challenges of modern life, the sacrificial nature of godly love, and the essence of marriage as God intends it for human life. If you have found yourself struggling with contemporary debates over the nature of marriage, if you wonder whether the church's traditional teachings still apply in the twenty-first century, and if you feel a growing divide between the practice of your faith and the life of the wider community, then Standing Under the Wrong Rainbow serves as a wake-up call and a guide to reclaiming the power of longstanding tradition.

In my first book, I dealt with overcoming stressors that engulfed my daughter from the age of five through twenty-seven. Her behaviors were so extreme at times that they surpassed what I expected in the mental health arena. I turned to God for answers as things escalated out of control. To my great relief and surprise, I heard His replies. He was in the midst of every difficult day, every challenging moment. He taught my family many things. The most important was that He was with us in the fight. At the end of that book, Kelsi seemed to have a future. She had obtained a job and held it for a time. This book covers the last two years of her life here on earth. Things began to unravel. Mental illness arose with a vengeance I had never seen and took her down. She lost her job. She began to repeatedly hit herself in the head. We prayed. We saw psychiatrists, spiritual counselors, and autism specialists. Things looked hopeless, but I expected God to heal her in this realm, not the next. The day she "went ahead of us" to heaven was the worst day of our lives. Recovery from our loss seemed impossible. Parents that have lost children would fully understand. This is a story of miraculous rebound as we listened to the voice of God. He brought us through the horror of devastating loss. The principles in His Word were the pathway to choosing life again. No matter what catastrophe you have experienced, it is possible to make a comeback. You are still here because God has a purpose for you on the earth. As you read my story, I pray this: May you find hope in relationship with Jesus Christ. May the Waymaker define your open road. May you never falter in pursuing your destiny. No matter what.
