Look to Christ, the ultimate revelation of God. The letter to the Hebrews asks questions aimed at the heart of what it looks like for Christians to walk in Christ's footsteps. How should Christians relate to the Old Testament? What are we to make of the New Testament's urgent pleas to persevere in the faith? Can we really lose our salvation? How does Jesus model both humility in his humanity and the glory of God through his earthly life? These questions continue to be fiercely debated by Christians. The ancient letter to the Hebrews answers all by focusing on Christ's magnificent love and greatness. In Christ Above All, Adrio König puts readers in the shoes of the original audience of Hebrews and shows how, in a world full of competing claims to power and authority, Christ--in all his glory and humanity--really does surpass all others. In the Transformative Word series, you'll read the Bible with a global cast of church leaders and scholars. In conversational tone, contributors from around the world explain the importance of a biblical book, showing how it can transform your life.

Can Christians lose their salvation? Are there such things as guardian angels? Can those in heaven see the happenings on earth? How were the Old Testament saints saved since Jesus hadn't been born yet? Jesus said to the thief on the cross, "Today you shall be with me in paradise," but he wasn't raised from the dead until three days later and didn't ascend into heaven until many days after that--did Jesus lie? Using an in-depth study of the book of Hebrews, Dr. Jory explores answers from the Bible for these and a host of other questions about God and the Christian faith. Biblical commentaries come in all shapes, sizes, and levels of detail and complexity. Dr. Jory's approach is to ratchet down the complexity. It seeks to present material with these questions always in focus: What would I want to learn from the Bible? How would I want it to be taught to me? The material is presented in short lessons structured to be covered over a forty-day period and is geared for both individual and small-group Bible studies.

"Unfortunately, many Christians find the book of Hebrews simply too daunting to study for themselves. In Hold Fast to Jesus, Elizabeth comes alongside and guides the reader carefully through this important part of Scripture in a way that is clear and significant. In her works, Elizabeth has always demonstrated a keen ability to take the deep, perhaps complicated, aspects of Scripture and lead one to a proper understanding of the biblical text. She demonstrates this ability again with Hold Fast to Jesus. The one who joins her on this journey will learn to navigate the text, to appreciate its implications for living, to marvel at the greatness of Christ, and to hold fast to the Word of the Gospel. All the while, Elizabeth's humble spirit and infectious love for Jesus will be evident. I commend this study to anyone who would love to have a more profound faith in and love for Jesus." --Dr. Randall McKinion, Asst. VP for Academics, Asst. Professor for OT, Cedarville University Whether we're sailing through rough seas or smooth waters, our only hope is to hold fast to Jesus. He is the anchor for our souls. In this study of the personal, passionate letter of exhortation to "go on to maturity," we'll consider deep doctrines including the new covenant, atonement, holiness, and eternal salvation. We'll worship the exalted Son of God who is our High Priest. We'll be warned not to drift away from our great salvation. We'll be encouraged to persevere through suffering as the great heroes of the faith did. The letter to the Hebrews was written over 1900 years ago and it was written to a group of Christians who were well aware of the Jewish practices of worship. They may have been considering returning to Judaism. That probably doesn't describe you today, but the main point of the letter is as vitally important now as it was then. Jesus is our great High Priest who has provided what no other priest of any religion ever could. The sacrifice of His sinless life makes forgiveness available to all who believe in Him as their Savior. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus and hold fast to Him. There is no one better!

A Forty-Day Study of the Book of Hebrews Christian Focus

Rejuvenate your faith through the stories of the faithful. Throughout Scripture we find countless stories of God's faithfulness—we also find countless stories of the people who remained faithful to Him. To strengthen and deepen your own faith, enter the stories of God's imperfect yet faithful people in A Great Cloud of Witnesses, a six- or eight-week Bible study by Trillia Newbell. This study dives into Hebrews 11, examining the lives of Rahab, Enoch, Gideon, Sarah, and many more whose faiths withstood the tests of their days. Each devotional invites you into the lives of ordinary people who lived by faith and concludes with reflection questions so that you can consider how your story connects with those found in Scripture. By studying the great cloud of witnesses found in Hebrews 11, and others who have gone before us, you will learn to imitate their faith while clinging to the One who is always faithful as you run the race God has set before you.

Living Faith WaterBrook

The Life of Faith, by Dr. Gary W. Fouché: Overview What is faith? Is it possible to acquire more faith? Why is it important to have faith? In this book "The life of faith" the author presents the reader with a wealth of information about biblical faith based on the lives of 16 specific biblical characters who became so popular in biblical discussions and writings that they became known as "the roll call of faith" and even "the heroes of our faith." The interesting thing about these 16 characters is every one of them had similar problems that we have today. They all had family problems and issues. They each also struggled with sin and disobedience. In this writing we see a common thread. Each individual in the roll call of faith had an encounter with God or a representative of God and each one had to make a decision based on the instruction from God or God's representative. We see a pattern developing that biblical faith is a progressive faith. By studying these individuals' lives and their struggles; their failures; and their sins we see how very much they are like us. They have different names; different stories and they each had a destiny given them by God that they are so desperately trying to find. All 16 of these individuals discovered their destiny and fulfilled their assignment from God. By studying these people's lives we can learn common obstacles to our life of faith and we can see faith grow. We can see faith develop as a process as these individuals begin to trust God in their lives and demonstrate that they trust God. We also see a process that as they trust God it becomes part of their life process. A life of active belief and trust in God. Is that really possible? Yes! As you read this story you will see doubt and despair turned into an active belief and solid trust as the people of God began to discover the purpose of God in their lives and walk it out deliberately. In this book you will discover and learn the same principles that these men and women walked out in their daily lives.

Hold Fast to Jesus Kregel Publications

Hebrews—written by Christians, to Christians, and for Christians—is loaded with theology accessible to any believer who wants to grasp the origin and meaning of faith. Penned at a time that was politically unstable, Hebrews targets believers who were tempted to abandon their faith and slip back into the rules and regulations of Judaism. In our politically unstable time of "wars and rumors of wars" (Mark 13:7), we can all understand the quest for stability. But there is only one source of rock solid security. Warren Wiersbe will show you that by focusing on the reality of the unseen first, an overwhelming desire for intimate friendship with God will follow. You will begin to see less with your physical eyes and more with your spiritual eyes as Wiersbe takes you on a journey, personally or with the fellowship of a group, that will strengthen your walk by deepening your insight.
