From the legendary

editor who helped shape modern

cookbook publishing-

one of the food world's most admired figures-

comes this evocative

and inspiring memoir.

Living in Paris after

World War II, Jones

broke free of bland

American food and

reveled in everyday

French culinary delights. On returning to the States she

published Julia Child's

Mastering the Art of French Cooking. The

rest is publishing and gastronomic history. A new world now opened up to Jones as she discovered, with her husband Evan, the delights of American

food, publishing some of the premier culinary luminaries of the twentieth century:

from Julia Child, James

Beard, and M.F.K.

Fisher to Claudia

Roden, Edna Lewis,

and Lidia Bastianich.

Here also are fifty of

Jones's favorite recipes collected over a lifetime of cooking-

each with its own story and special tips. The Tenth Muse is an absolutely charming memoir by a woman who was present at the creation of the American food revolution and played a pivotal role in shaping it.

Book 2: Caught Out!

Little, Brown

This biography was researched in the very room where Margery Allingham worked, and was written with the full co-operation of Margery's sister, her secretary and her housekeeper. It was first published in 1991. Since then, however, new material has become available, including a revelatory collection of letters and the startling truth about her husband's relationship with the writer Nancy Spain.

Was there a corpse underneath the sofa?

The book's new title, new introduction and afterword invite the reader to look again.

The Adventures of Margery Allingham is a new edition of Margery Allingham: a Biography published by William Heinemann Ltd in 1991.

George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four is unquestionably the most famous dystopian novel of all times. Written in the year of 1948, the author swapped the last two digits while describing a future totalitarian society where the minds, attitudes and actions of the subjects are thoroughly scrutinized by the "Thought Police", suspected dissidents tracked down and where the worship of the mythical party leader Big Brother is forced upon the masses. The low-ranking party member Winston Smith begins secretly to question the whole system and initiates a forbidden love affair with another party member.

The teenage daughter, Carrie, is planning to drown herself. The teenage son, Mark, is high on drugs and ten-year-old Ernie is nearly catatonic. This is the worst vacation ever. Anne manages to pull things together bit by bit, but just as they begin feeling like a family again, something catastrophic happens. Survival may be the least of their concerns.
