Promises Series by Amy Lane - Goodreads Keeping Promise Rock By Amy Keeping Promise Rock has been read and reviewed by everyone I know; it's like the m/m rite of passage now. If you read m/m romance, then you have to read Amy Lane, and if you read Amy Lane, then you have to read Keeping Promise Rock. It's quite simple. This is a coming of age romance that spans a decade or more. Keeping Promise Rock (Promises, #1) by Amy Lane Amy Lane is a master of characterization and the people she has created for Keeping Promise Rock are as timeless as they are memorable. We meet both Deacon and Crick as teenagers and watch them mature into men dealing with the tumultuous events that life has thrown at them. And not once does it ever feel less than completely real. Amy Lane ...And, three, if you're an Amy Lane fan, which I am, it's physically and emotionally impossible not to completely love this book. The very first thing I noticed about 'Keeping Promise Rock' was the sheer joy that Crick discovered at The Pulpit and simply being in Deacon's presence. Keeping Promise Rock by Amy Lane | Dreamspinner Press— Amy Lane, Keeping Promise Rock “It was the same smile he used in bed with Crick--the gentle, sweet smile that made him look young and a little vulnerable. Crick turned the picture around, and Benny had written, I asked him to think of you.” — Amy Lane, Keeping Promise Rock Keeping Promise Rock Quotes by Amy Lane - Goodreads One of the first books I ever read in the male/male genre was
