On guard. Things are quiet at the Hilltop, but there is a storm brewing on the horizon.

The Snark Bible Image Comics
Life is full of challenges- no matter age, gender, religion, ethnicity, or occupation. Some days can be wonderful and rich with blue skies with rays of yellow, and in a single moment, dark clouds and stormy winds push you to the brink of despair! In those moments, we often find ourselves discouraged and in need of words that speak to the heart of the matter; and it is there that we get a glimpse of the smallest rays of hope, waiting to be put together like pieces of a fragmented puzzle. The question for us then becomes, wherein does this source of enlightenment stem? In this big little book, these simply penned words, steeped in hidden pathways, can have the ability to meet you where you are and change life's trajectory. No matter how deep the pit appears or how hot the fire burns, take comfort in knowing that this collection: Poetry Thoughts & Meditations for the Soul, are writings inspired just for you. One of the most powerful gifts we have is that of self-expression. So understanding how to build a practical and healthy sense of self does not end when we face adversity; it merely begins when we overcome it. Here a little, there a little, step by step! The creativity He inspires can become an integral part of our lives when we learn how to saturate ourselves in the Son-light. Your journey in the wilderness has been a tedious one. Won't you allow a force higher than yourself to sustain and refresh your soul? Come, eat, and drink from the fountain. I hope that within these pages, you find a breadth of depth in the infinite source you have never known before. On that foundation, that source will unleash within your inner self unconditional Love, Joy, Peace, and the Hope of a Lasting Legacy!

"A treat to be savored." —Houston Chronicle A classic from New York Times bestselling author Anne Rivers Siddons, Nora, Nora tells the story of free-thinking Cousin Nora Findlay who turns tiny Lytton, Georgia, on its ear in the summer of 1961. Pat Conroy (The Prince of Tides) says the author of Low Country, Up Island, Peachtree Street, and King's Oak "ranks among the best of us," and the Atlanta Journal-Constitution praises Nora, Nora as "Anne Rivers Siddons writing at the top of her form. This lively, sparkling coming-of-age novel is superbly written and wholly engaging."

When Papo, a tough-talking Puerto Rican hustler from the Bronx, meets Brian, a frightened young lawyer from the Midwest, Papo begins to glimpse the possibility of a romantic escape from his life on the streets. At the same time, Bobby, a 17-year-old runaway who has been repeatedly raped by his older brother, offers to take care of Papo and moves in with him in his fleabag hotel room. It is then when Papo suddenly finds his defenses melting and his heart torn in two directions. TRAFFICKING IN BROKEN HEARTS is a gritty, urban love story. "Playwright Edwin Sanchez makes a promising New York debut with TRAFFICKING IN BROKEN HEARTS, a grim, streetwise and bracingly compassionate work ... he convinces with the honesty of his writing and a canny, thoughtful grasp of his trio of characters. The playwright does an especially effective job in penning the gray shades of his characters ..." -Greg Evans, Variety

As part of the restructuring of the educational system in 1989, the Vietnamese government implemented policy changes such as promoting the establishment of "people's" and community educational institutions, permitting the establishment of private institutions and transforming public institutions into private ones. Since Vietnam has only recently moved from a centrally planned to a market economy, private schools are still relatively rare in Vietnam. This paper examines the nature of private schooling in Vietnam using data from the 1992-93 Vietnam Living Standards Survey.

The lord of snark, Lawrence Dorfman, is back! With this treasury of backhanded compliments, sarcastic insults, and catty comebacks, Dorfman gives us transformative wisdom that's sure to change your life—or at least induce a light chuckle. One question plagues us all: How do we survive all the Sturm und Drang of everyday life? The answer is but one word: snark. "She wears her clothes as if they were thrown on by a pitchfork." —Jonathan Swift "Why don't you get a haircut? You look like a chrysanthemum." —P. G. Wodehouse "He's a mental midget with the IQ of a fence post." —Tom Waits "They hardly make 'em like him anymore—but just to be on the safe side, he should be castrated anyway." —Hunter S. Thompson "He has a Teflon brain . . . nothing sticks" —Lily Tomlin "He has no more backbone than a chocolate éclair." —Theodore Roosevelt Snark will keep the wolves at bay (or at least out on the porch). Snark, much like a double scotch, will help you deal with relatives, shopping, and rudeness; it is an outlet for the unleashed vitriolic bile that's saved itself up over the months. Like a shield, it will protect you while you go about your life. Snark is your answer!
