The incredible true story of a boy living in war-torn Somalia who escapes to America-- first by way of the movies; years later, through a miraculous green card. Abdi Nor Iftin first fell in love with America from afar. As a child, he learned English by listening to American pop artists like Michael Jackson and watching films starring action heroes like Arnold Schwarzenegger. Sporting American clothes and dance moves, he became known around Mogadishu as Abdi American, but when the radical Islamist group al-Shabaab rose to power in 2006, it suddenly became dangerous to celebrate Western culture. Desperate to make a living, Abdi used his language skills to post secret dispatches online, which found an audience of worldwide listeners. But as life in Somalia grew more dangerous, Abdi was left with no choice but to flee to Kenya as a refugee. In an amazing stroke of luck, Abdi won entrance to the U.S. in the annual visa lottery, though his route to America--filled with twists and turns and a harrowing sequence of events that nearly stranded him in Nairobi--did not come easily. Now a proud resident of Maine, on the path to citizenship, Abdi Nor Iftin's dramatic, deeply stirring memoir is truly a story for our time- a vivid reminder of why western democracies still beckon to those looking to make a better life.

Call Me American

Skyhorse Publishing Inc.

A daring post-apocalyptic novel from a powerful rising literary voice With winter looming, a small northern Anishinaabe community goes dark. Cut off, people become passive and confused. Panic builds as the food supply dwindles. While the band council and a pocket of community members struggle to maintain order, an unexpected visitor arrives, escaping the crumbling society to the south. Soon after, others follow. The community leadership loses its grip on power as the visitors manipulate the tired and hungry to take control of the reserve. Tensions rise and, as the months pass, so does the death toll due to sickness and despair. Frustrated by the building chaos, a group of young friends and their families turn to the land and Anishinaabe tradition in hopes of helping their community thrive again. Guided through the chaos by an unlikely leader named Evan Whitesky, they endeavor to restore order while grappling with a grave decision. Blending action and allegory, Moon of the Crusted Snow upends our expectations. Out of catastrophe comes resilience. And as one society collapses, another is reborn.

On Thursday, January 11th, 2018 behind closed doors meeting, our President Donald J. Trump made a comment on immigrants coming from Haiti and African nations as people from "shithole countries". It was all over the news especially on CNN, MSNBC, NBC News, NPR and so many other channels. African news networks also went on discussing this, and generally broke the internet. The social media became main a battle ground for people who support and those who oppose. For over years, African countries have been referred to as Developing Countries, Dark Continent, Peripheral, Banana Republic, Third World Nations and so many other words. These terminologies have been used from grade school to universities, and all these terminologies have been "designed" by Westerners to categorize and group these countries into one box, and denying them certain privileges and/or rights. CNN and other western media use these words which are very offensive and derogatory every single day especially when talking of economies and democratic tendencies in Africa. If not being hypocrite, why those networks tell Africans that Trump called you "shithole countries" and telling them it is a bad word and offensive while same networks still using similar words, just different wording to those countries? And why African countries get upset with one word as offensive and derogatory but "accepting" all other words of similar meaning and implications? Is it because CNN said so? Personally, I have seen and experienced those extremely dirty, shabby and unpleasant places in both African countries and here in the United States. There are so many places you cannot even imagine you are in America, apart from being "fooled" with nice pictures on internet and media. There are so many rats in New York City around the Subway just like some slams in some parts of Africa. There are so many unpleasant places across the United States if you take a picture no one will ever believe you that you're in America. Each country on the planet has parts of shabby, extremely dirty and unpleasant places, at the same time you'll find beautiful places and things to enjoy in that particular area from the people, culture and environment. If I were to do it over, I would still like to be born in Africa. I liked my childhood upbringing, cultural values, respect and everything prepared me to be outstanding human beings. In short, I would never change I thing. I would live there and still relocated to another place, it's all because God created human beings and have them the Earth, and not specific country. I'm a citizen of the planet Earth and will do everything to help making it a better place, leave a legacy to the new generation too.
