The Overspent

American explores why so many of us feel materially dissatisfied, why we work staggeringly long hours and yet walk around with ever-present mental wish lists of things to buy or get, and why Americans save less than virtually anyone in the world. Unlike many experts, Harvard economist Juliet B. Schor does not blame consumers' lack of self-discipline.

The Overspent American: Why We Want What We Don't Need

The Overspent American is an amazing book (probably one of the best non-fiction works I've read). Juliet Schor is very insightful and makes many good points regarding why we consume as much as we do and why we shouldn't.
