Creaking . . . Squeaking . .
. Gnashing . . . Glinking . .
. Under the bed, deep in the closet, behind the radiator . . . the bedtime monsters are stirring, and poor Arnold is too scared to fall asleep. He's powerless to get rid of them—and they don't seem to be more scared of him than he is of them, no matter what his mother says. But even the most terrible, horrible monster has to be afraid of something, as Arnold eventually finds out in this empowering tale of harnessing the imagination and conquering nighttime fears.

It's the Little Monsters' bedtime but they want some fun. So...scamper, scamper, crash and bang!
Quickly off they run...Lift the flaps and help Mummy Monster find her darling little monsters.

The Night Monster
Cartwheel Books

A unique monster-under-the-bed story with the perfect balance of giggles and shivers, this picture book relies on the power of humor over fear, appeals to a child's love for creatures both alarming and absurd, and glorifies the scope of a child's imagination. One night, when Ethan checks under his bed for his monster, Gabe, he finds a note from him instead: "Gone fishing. Back in a week." Ethan knows that without Gabe's familiar nightly scares he doesn't stand a chance of getting to sleep, so Ethan interviews potential substitutes to see if they've got the right equipment for the job—pointy teeth, sharp claws, and a long tail—but none of them proves scary enough for Ethan. When Gabe returns sooner than expected from his fishing trip, Ethan is thrilled. It turns out that Gabe didn't enjoy fishing because the fish scared too easily. Ever since Nicholas and his family moved into their bigger - but much older - home, he has suspected that the noises coming from his bathroom aren't caused by faulty plumbing or old age...but something more menacing. Young readers will enjoy this cute adventure and will learn with Nicholas just what really in his bathroom is making all those scary noises. "There's a Monster in My Bathroom" is the very first book in the Monster Mystery Series which is all about cute, captivating bedtime stories which are not only intended to entertain young kids between the ages of 4 to 8, but also to help them learn to read or increase reading fluency through the rhyming canter style I'll incorporate into each book. Though each story will be monster themed, the monsters will be cute and non-threatening, whether real or imagined.

What do you do before you go to bed at night? Bigfoot hugs his wooby extra tight, while aliens have pillow fights. Nessie gets a drink, then swims down deep. But in the end, everybody needs to sleep . . . Even Monsters Alfred's Book of Monsters National Geographic Books

Trick or treat? With nods to Tim Burton, Edward Gorey, and Neil Gaiman, this humorous picture book about a Victorian boy obsessed with monsters presents a dark and appealing world, created by debut author/illustrator Sam Streed. In the graveyard, between stone monuments for forgotten souls, lurks the Black Shuck. . . . Its one blood-red eye burns with an undying rage. After reading about the slimy Nixie, the angry Black Shuck, and the creepy Lantern Man in his beloved Book of Monsters, Alfred decides to invite the monsters to teatime with his crusty old aunty, who thinks monsters are an improper obsession for a respectable young boy. Monster Quilts Volo Bedtime for Monsters is Ed Vere's hilarious monsterish tale - with a big twist! What if a monster were looking for a bedtime snack? And what if that snack just happened to be you? GULP! He's getting closer and closer . . . and his tummy is rumbling REALLY loudly. You'd be very scared! BUT all this monster actually wants is a lovely monster-sized goodnight kiss. Night, night! Ed Vere is also the author and illustrator of Mr Big, the story about the big Gorilla with the big heart and The Getaway. Banana, his book for preschoolers, is the perfect book about manners but only has two words - 'yes please' of course! Ed Vere studied fine art at Camberwell College of Art and has been writing and illustrating children's books since 1999. He is published in both England and the US. Ed is also a painter, working from his studio in East London and is represented by galleries in London and Los Angeles. After a year and a half living in Barcelona, Ed now lives and works in London. Look out for the new animation of Fingers McGraw... coming soon!

Gather around parents and monster bedtime book fans! It is time for another instant nursery rhymes classic! Meet Marty, a young imaginative boy and a very adorable monster named Momo. And they are here to make your bedtime routine F-U-N!

Marty and Momo Make Bedtime Fun starts with a young child named Marty living with his parents. One beautiful night while getting ready for bed, Marty began hearing some strange scratching noises. Frightened and confused, Marty called Mommy for comfort. The noises kept coming proving that Marty wasn't just imagining things. Mommy and Daddy knew they had to do investigate but couldn't find anything. Still, Marty is a very imaginative person and enjoys the bedtime stories Mommy reads every night. But this was a very different night for Marty as he heard the noises once again as soon as he started playing a game by himself. "A voice in the darkness said, "Marty, hello!" This voice sounded weird and it was very low... " It was a monster! The monster's two green horns and purple furry outlandish look didn't help relieve Marty's fears until it started to smile and talk. When Marty started to overcome his fears and say something, the monster got scared too. But then something amazing happened. He started to talk and he even has a name - Momo. Momo has a problem of his own and it involves getting ready for his bedtime routine. Marty placed his fear of monsters behind him and helped Momo by sharing the entertaining side of bedtime. Even Mommy got in on the whole thing and read a beautiful sleep book to put both Marty and Momo to bed. The next morning to Marty's surprise, Momo was gone with only a note left behind. Momo's note expressed happiness in meeting a new friend along with a strong desire to return the following week. While waiting for that day to come, Momo wasted no time in teaching all of the things he learned from Marty to his monster family. Marty and Momo Make Bedtime Fun is all about embracing all the nice things of going to bed. It might be tricky and a little scary to do on your own but you'd be surprised with the folks willing to help you. Marty most certainly had that surprise as Momo may look like a scary monster at first but Momo smiles like any nice child would. Bedtime is always more fun in pairs! Enter Marty's world in vivid color with full page illustrations by renowned children's fantasy book artist Nadin Solntseva. Best read with parents out loud like other nursery rhyme books as it features tons of rhyming verses each with easy to understand and natural flowing words. Behind those verses is a key real-life lesson to learn and a couple of moral bedtime stories to keep in mind. "Both out of breath as they had a good run, Racing each other to bed - it's such fun! " Grab this monster bedtime book now and get a FREE BONUS that is a sure value for all coloring book lovers! The exclusive Marty and Momo coloring book features 5 full printable pages.
