A Crack in the Wall De Agostini

During the Chinese Cultural Revolution, two boys are sent to the country for reeducation, where their lives take an unexpected turn when they meet the beautiful daughter of a local tailor and stumble upon a forbidden stash of Western literature.

The Paper Woman Pushkin Press

Anna Hope's brilliant debut unfolds over the course of five days, as three women must deal with the aftershocks of World War I and its impact on the men in their lives. Wake: 1) Emerge or cause to emerge from sleep. 2) Ritual for the dead. 3) Consequence or aftermath. London, 1920. The city prepares to observe the two-year anniversary of Armistice Day with the burial of the unknown soldier. Many are still haunted by the war: Hettie, a dance instructress, lives at home with her mother and her brother, who is mute after his return from combat. One night Hettie meets a wealthy, educated man and finds herself smitten with him. But there is something distracted about him, something she cannot reach. . . . Evelyn works at the Pensions Exchange, through which thousands of men have claimed benefits from wounds or debilitating distress. Embittered by her own loss, she looks for solace in her adored brother, who has not been the same since he returned from the front. . . . Ada is beset by visions of her son on every street, convinced he is still alive. Helpless, her loving husband has withdrawn from her. Then one day a young man appears at her door, seemingly with notions to peddle, like hundreds of out-of-work veterans. But when he utters the name of her son, Ada is jolted to the core. The lives of these three women are braided together, their stories gathering tremendous power as the ties that bind them become clear, and the body of the unknown soldier moves closer and closer to its final resting place. Advance praise for Wake “Hope’s unblinking prose is reminiscent of Vera Brittain’s classic memoir Testament of Youth in its depiction of the social and emotional fallout, particularly on women, of the Great War. . . . Hope reaches beyond the higher echelons of society to women of different social classes, all linked by their reluctance to bid goodbye to the world the conflict has shattered.”—The New York Times Book Review “Wake is a tender and timely novel, full of compassion and quiet insight. The author gives us a moving and original glimpse into the haunted peace after the Great War, her characters drawn by the gravity of the unmarked, the unknown, and perhaps, finally, the un hoped for.”—Chris Cleave, author of Little Bee “Wake is a compelling and emotionally charged debut about the painful aftermath of war and the ways—small, brave, or commonplace—in which we keep ourselves going. It touches feelings we know, and settings—dance halls, war fronts, queues outside the grocer’s—that we don’t. I loved it.”—Rachel Joyce, author of The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry “Wake is powerful and humane, a novel that charms and beguiles. Anna Hope’s characters are so real, flawed, and searching, and her prose so natural, one almost forgets how very great a story she is telling.”—Sadie Jones, author of The Uninvited Guests “Using telling detail, Hope creates a vibrant physical and emotional landscape in which her leading characters, and a sea of others, move irresistibly into the future, some having found resolution, others still in search. Fresh, confident, yet understated, Hope’s first work movingly revisits immense tragedy while also confirming her own highly promising ability.”—Kirkus Reviews

Letteratura cinese FrancoAngeli

He is obsessed with her innocence. He will be destroyed by her guilt. The walls were champagne. The house was immaculate. A prosperous doctor lived there with his son and his beautiful wife. But the elegant walls hid a family's secret, a wife's shame. And one day shots rang out in the doctor's house. Suddenly Jennifer Witt was in jail, facing the death penalty. Jennifer insisted that she had not killed her abusive husband -- and she could never have killed her own son. Dismas Hardy believed her. But Hardy was only part of the defense team, and the only lawyer who continued to believe her...even as her story was torn to pieces, even as her lies came out, even as she was found guilty of murder. Now there's only one thing Jennifer can do to save her life...and she refuses to do it. So Hardy must do it for her. And in a shocking case of violence, betrayal, and lies, his only weapon is the truth... The 13th Juror...When innocence is not enough.

Per la prima volta in Italia, sono tradotti e pubblicati i saggi di alcuni dei maggiori studiosi e interpreti internazionali della World History, con specifico riferimento al ruolo della Cina, all’ascesa dell’Occidente e ai limiti dell’esperienza europea, all’emergere nella storia dell’umanità di un mondo sempre più interconnesso. Sono affrontati temi e questioni che toccano un ampio arco temporale, ma con una particolare attenzione ai secoli XIX e XX: il carattere cosmopolita e globale dell’ascesa dell’Occidente e i cambiamenti nel rapporto Occidente- Asia, la crisi della Cina con la perdita della propria visione sinocentrica del mondo, gli anni della Guerra Fredda, il recupero da parte cinese di un ruolo e di un'influenza in campo internazionale.

Pablo Borla's marriage is reduced to confrontations with his wife over their daughter's rebellious ways and his firm builds only repellent office blocks destroying the fabric of old Buenos Aires. It all changes with the arrival of a young woman who brings to light a murder committed decades ago by those in his office. A murder everyone assumed was forgotten. Claudia Piñeiro, after working as a professional accountant, became a journalist, playwright and television scriptwriter and in 1992 won the prestigious Pléyade journalism award. She has more recently turned to fiction; All

Yours (finalist for the 2003 Planeta Prize) and Thursday Night Widows.

Il monaciello di Napoli Random House "Cosima" tells the story of an aspiring writer growing up in Nuoro, Sardinia during the last decades of the nineteenth century when formal education for women was rare and literary careers unheard-of. Based on Deledda's own life, the work describes a young woman's struggle against the dismay and disapproval of her family and friends at her creative ambitions. Yet it also reads like a charming fable with details of family life, rural traditions and wild bandits, and it is as much a novel of memory as of character or action. Deledda's characters are poor country folk driven by some predetermined force. Their loves are tragic, their lives as hard and as rigidly controlled as nature itself in the hills of Sardinia. Deledda creates memorable figures who play out their lives against this backdrop of mountains and bare plains, sheepfolds and vineyards. Shimmering in the distance is the sea and escape - for a few - to the Continent or America. In 1926 Grazia Deledda became the second woman and the second Italian to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature. She wrote thirty-three novels, including "Reeds in the Wind," and many books of short stories, almost all set on Sardinia. Her work has become well known to English-speaking readers through Martha King's translations for Italica Press.

L'amore secondo Miranda Bitter Lemon Press

Questa breve storia della letteratura cinese dall'antichità a oggi si concentra sul ruolo fondamentale svolto dalla cultura letteraria nella promozione di istanze sociali e politiche. Facendo propria la tradizionale concezione cinese della letteratura, che abbraccia la storia e la filosofia, oltre alla poesia, alla critica letteraria, alla narrazione orale, al teatro e al romanzo, il volume riflette sui fondamenti filosofici e sulla capacità della letteratura di affrontare i traumi della storia e coltivare le passioni, etiche e sensuali. Spaziando dalle più antiche testimonianze scritte fino all'epoca della modernizzazione e poi della globalizzazione, l'autrice trae spunto da vividi esempi per illustrare il ruolo del mecenatismo delle élite cinesi, le modalità con le quali la letteratura ha servito gli interessi di specifici gruppi e le questioni della definizione del canone, della lingua, della comprensione interculturale e della costruzione dello stato.

C'è un solo luogo al mondo a cui nessun cuore può resistere: Parigi Anna è pronta a passare un ultimo anno di liceo indimenticabile insieme alla sua migliore amica e a un ragazzo che sta per diventare il suo ragazzo. Ma il padre ha deciso di regalarle un'esperienza altrettanto indimenticabile: un anno in una scuola internazionale a Parigi! Peccato che Anna non riesca a prenderla con altrettanto entusiasmo: non sa una parola di francese, si sente l'ultima arrivata e non riconosce neanche il cibo che trova a mensa. Per fortuna nei corridoi si scontra con quanto di più interessante la città possa offrirle: Étienne St. Clair. Occhi splendidi, capelli perfetti, un'innata gentilezza e un'irresistibile ironia: St. Clair ha proprio tutto... anche una fidanzata, purtroppo! Per quanto Anna cerchi di non infilarsi in una situazione complicata, Parigi non è proprio la città adatta per resistere a una cotta colossale... Un romanzo divertente, romantico, che scintilla di tutte le luci della Ville Lumière e di un amore inaspettato. "Un romanzo magico, che descrive alla perfezione i turbamenti dell'amore." - Cassandra Clare, autrice della saga Shadowhunters "Di una spanna sopra le solite commedie romantiche. Stephanie Perkins mescola con grazia amore e realismo." - Kirkus Review "Un ragazzo perfetto e un'ambientazione da favola. Questo romanzo vi conquisterà!" - MTV.com

A Life Farrar, Straus and Giroux
La conquista dell'identità sessuale in un romanzo toccante e indimenticabile Nella vita di Miranda si nasconde un segreto: chi è davvero questa donna, madre di due figli, ridotta a rubare nei supermercati per avere qualcosa da mangiare? È ciò che tenta di scoprire Opal, una psicologa che vuole aiutare Miranda a uscire dalla solitudine. Grazie a Opal, Miranda sembra ritrovare la fiducia in se stessa e nel futuro... Fino all'incontro con Storm, un uomo con problemi psichici che vive come un barbone per le strade di Auckland. Tra lui e Miranda nasce prima un'amicizia, poi una relazione d'amore. Ma inevitabilmente la loro storia spalancherà le porte al passato, e al ricordo di Timothy, un bambino effeminato a cui piaceva giocare alle bambole... Un bambino che da grande ha scelto di diventare donna. Con un linguaggio diretto, lucido e commovente, L'amore secondo Miranda racconta i disagi del vivere in un corpo a cui non si appartiene: una struggente avventura umana che, in un mondo dominato dal pregiudizio, è destinata ancora una volta a far riflettere. «Sue Reidy è una delle migliori scrittrici della sua generazione.» The Press «Sue Reidy accompagna i suoi personaggi nell'appassionante viaggio alla scoperta di se stessi e della propria sessualità.» Library Journal «Sue Reidy riesce a dar voce al tormento interiore dei suoi protagonisti, divisi tra ciò che dovrebbero essere e ciò che sono realmente.» Evening Post Sue Reidy è scrittrice, poetessa e giornalista freelance. Per molti anni ha lavorato come disegnatrice, art director e illustratrice. L'amore secondo Miranda è il suo terzo romanzo dopo il successo internazionale di

The Visitation e Four Ways to be a Woman. Vive a Auckland.

The brutal realities of the dark places Su Tong depicts in this collection of novellas set in 1930s provincial China -- worlds of prostitution, poverty, and drug addiction -- belie his prose of stunning and simple beauty. The title novella, "Raise the Red Lantern," which became a critically acclaimed film, tells the story of Lotus, a young woman whose father's suicide forces her to become the concubine of a wealthy merchant. Crushed by loneliness, despair, and cruel treatment, Lotus finds her descent into insanity both a weapon and a refuge. "Nineteen Thirty-Four Escapes" is an account of a family's struggles during one momentous year; plagued by disease, death, and the shady promise of life in a larger town, the family slowly disintegrates. Finally, "Opium Family" details the last years of a landowning clan whose demise is brought about by corruption, lust, and treachery -- fruits of the insidious crop they harvest.

A precious scroll inscribed with a lost

Buddhist sutra—once owned by Pu Yi, the last emperor of China—is illicitly sold to an eccentric French linguist, Paul d'Ampere, who is imprisoned as a result. In jail, he devotes himself to studying its ancient text. A young Western scholar in China hears this account from the grocer Toomchooq, whose name mysteriously connects him to the document. She falls in love with both teller and tale, but when d'Ampere is killed in prison, Toomchooq disappears, and she, pregnant with his child, embarks on a search for her lost love and the scroll that begins, "Once on a moonless night . . ."

Based on the notorious 1924 Leopold-Loeb murder case. Brilliant attorney Clarence Darrow defended two wealthy Chicago teenagers who thought their superior intellect would enable them to execute the perfect crime. Darrow's history-making and controversial defense against capital punishment saved the boys from a death sentence.

A che cosa ci è servito Freud? Anchor Following on from his bestselling study of violence, The Football Factory, John King considers Britain's other obsession - sex. Formed in the chemical mists of New Year's Eve, The Sex Division sees the once sacred act of procreation at its most material, as five men devise a system based on the sexual act. In this lager-soaked league, the most that women can offer a man is 4 points - unless, that is, she leaves her handbag unattended... From its base in the asset-stripped, emotionally castrated 90s, Headhunters shows the dreams of The Sex Division members breaking through the heavy media cloud of anorexic pin-ups and paedophile fashion. A missing brother, prophetic visions, a love affair, and tit-for-tat confrontation draw the characters out into the open - revealing the men behind the machismo, their need for mutual respect, and their recognition of the hidden or suppressed affinities.
