 G. K. Beale's monumental New International Greek Testament Commentary volume on Revelation has been highly praised since its publication in 1999. This shorter commentary distills the superb grammatical analysis and exegesis from that tome (over 1,300 pages) into a book more accessible and pertinent to preachers, students, and general Christian readers. As in the original commentary, Beale views Revelation as an integrated whole, as a conscious continuation of the Old Testament prophetic books, and shows that recognizing Revelation's nearly constant use of Old Testament allusions is key to unlocking its meaning. Interspersed throughout the volume are more than sixty sets of "Suggestions for Reflection" to help readers better grasp the relevance of Revelation to their lives and our world today.

Things to know about the Great Tribulation: The Antichrist is not the author of the events in the tribulation. He's manipulating them. Most deaths in the tribulation will not be at the hands of the Antichrist (Rev. 6:8, 9:13-15, 18). Most Christians who die in the Great Tribulation will not be martyred/beheaded (Rev. 6:8, 9:18). The mark of the beast will affect the merchants not the consumers (Rev. 18:3, 11, 15, 21). The consequences for refusing the mark of the beast is not death (Rev. 13:16-17) but restriction from participating in the Antichrist's one-world commerce system wherein all the participants will become rich. One will not be forced to choose between salvation and starvation (Matt. 6:25, 31, 33). A single act of taking the mark of the beast is just as forgivable in the tribulation as tattoos of Satan are today. (See the combination of unforgivable acts of worship in Revelation 14:9-11.) Many will worship the beast or his image or take his mark and be forgiven. It's the combination of those three acts that's unforgivable. (See the same principle in Romans 10:9 as it applies to eternal life.) Those who miss the rapture are not at the mercy of the Antichrist (Rom. 5:20). The word of God and the Holy Spirit are both present during the tribulation (Matt. 24:35; John 14:16-17, 26). Salvation will be just as accessible in the tribulation as it is in the church dispensation (Matt. 18:20, 24:3; Heb. 13:5; Rev. 7:4, 11:3, 14:6). The opening of the seals is not God releasing his judgment in the Great Tribulation but the consequences of humanities accumulated behavior (Gal. 6:7). Satan does not have the authority ability or power to give life to anything (John 10:9-10; Acts 17:25-26, 28). The terms "before the foundation of the world," "predestination," "the Lamb's Book of Life" are all expressing the eternal state. Eliminate either of these conditions or positions from the plane of salvation, and there's no eternal life. These terms are never associated with sin or sinners (Rom. 8:29; Eph. 1:5, 11; Rev. 13:8, 17:8, 21:9, 27).

Have you ever experienced competing in a game when it seemed like your opponent was so fierce, so challenging, so strong that you thought that you were going to lose? Or have you ever felt the strength of your opponent that you felt like you were a grasshopper in the eyes of giants? Well, this is what the book of revelation is all about. It's a book that inspires us as believers to be faith giants and to view our spiritual enemies as grasshoppers in our eyes; with that faith we can conquer and defeat anything that the enemy throws at us. The purpose of this prophetic book is to give instructions, commendations, as well as warnings of discipline to the seven Churches of Asia Minor. Even though it was written for them, it will do us well if we truly glean from its spiritual treasures. It is a book of eschatology, a divine plan given by God about the end-times that warns unbelievers about God's wrath and judgment. Not only does it warn the unsaved about God's oncoming judgment, but it also gives joy to the faithful, who will be caught up during the Rapture and who will not have to experience or go through the seven-year tribulation period that will take place on earth after the church gets Raptured up to meet Christ in the air. It is also a book that encourages believers to stay faithful to Christ until the end of time. Why? Because we win! It is a book that prepares and reminds those who accept Christ during the tribulation period that despite the Antichrist's demonic attacks, we will triumph with Christ in the end. Even though this book is full of symbolism and various interpretations, God's divine plan will be revealed by way of the Holy Spirit. This is what the word revelation means. It means to uncover or to unveil. Therefore, if there is ever a time that you thought that you were going to lose this Christian battle, be of good cheer. We win! Again, I say, as you face the trials and tribulations of the devil, be of good courage. You are on the right team!

The book of Revelation is full of imagery that challenges even the finest Bible scholars. Its symbols and prophecies can be difficult to grasp, but they hold rich meaning for us today. Studying Revelation will give you confidence, courage and an assurance that God is in control. In the end, he will reign eternally and Christians will know the joy of his presence forever. As you see the glory of his kingdom and the joyous worship of those he has redeemed, your own commitment to him will deepen.

Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein; for the time is at hand. (Revelation 1:3) This book is a revelation from Jesus Christ, about Himself. This is extremely important for the following: 1) It reveals Jesus's evolution of His churches sixty to sixty-five years after His resurrection and ascension to heaven, and 2) It discloses future events concerning the tribulation: God's triumph over evil, the return of Christ to reign on earth, and the blessedness of God's eternal kingdom. And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, write, blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them. (Revelation 14:13) Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. (Revelation 16:15) And He said unto me, write, blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb, and He sayeth unto me, these are the true sayings of God. (Revelation 19:9) Blessed and Holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection. (Revelation 20:6) Blessed is he that readeth. (Revelation 1:3) This is the first of seven beatitudes or blessings found in Revelation given to those who read, hear, and obey the things written in the Book. The other six blessings are found in Revelations 14:13, 16:15, 19:9, 20:6, 22:7, 22:14 and Luke 11:28).

"The one who reads this is blessed, and those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep what is written in it are blessed, because the time is near!" —Revelation 1:3 (HCSB) Respected Bible teacher and beloved pastor Adrian Rogers takes readers on a breathtaking journey through the "blessing book" of Revelation with Unveiling the End Times in Our Time. Indeed, Revelation offers every Christian believer a dramatic and hope-filled overview of what the end of days will be like. Although some think Revelation is confusing, or even scary, with its talk of dragons and beasts, the text contains a proper understanding of where his- tory is headed. Rogers makes clear how the signs of the times already reveal God's plan for bringing his people to full redemption, empowering us to live boldly while expecting the return of King Jesus as the triumphant Lamb.

Unveiling the End Times in Our Time InterVarsity Press

The end times contain many exciting events we are all familiar with and think we fully understand. The appearance and domination of the Antichrist throughout the world. The rise and global domination of the Revised Roman Empire, resulting in a One World Government. The Mark of the Beast that makes trade impossible anywhere on the Earth. The universal devastation wrecked by the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse. The appearance of the spiritual harlot of Mystery Babylon, and the end time false religion. However, consider the following: What if the Antichrist will not become the universal or worldwide leader? What if the Mark of the Beast is regional, rather than global? What if there is no Revised Roman Empire? What if the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse have already been loosed? What if Mystery Babylon could never be the Roman Catholic Church? Who did Jesus identify as the Mystery Babylon of Revelation? What if the Twelfth Imam, the Islamic Messiah, is slain in the rebuilt Jewish Temple? Why is it impossible to know the identity of the Antichrist until certain events unfold? Why are the dates of the Rapture and that of the Second Coming both unknowable? Who is left to enter into the Millennial Kingdom if there's a Post-Tribulation Rapture? Why are the identities of the two end-time prophets unknowable? What country is poised to play a major role within these end-time events? In a detailed and thorough analysis of Scripture, The Great Tribulation! explores these and many more questions related to the end-time events in a step-by-step approach. Using a literal interpretation of Scripture, this eschatological study is unsurpassed in detail for the knowledgeable Bible student and yet remains basic and straightforward for the novice.

Perhaps no Christian prophecy carries with it the drama and intrigue than that of the coming of the Antichrist, history's quintessential demonic tyrant. His brief but terrible reign is to come at the climax of a spiritually dark age in man's history. Indeed, the 20th century alone saw three popes comment on the appearance and rise of the Antichrist—Pius X, Paul VI and John Paul II—fueling speculation that his reign was near. Today, as the world sinks deeper into moral depravity and intellectual confusion, talk of the Antichrist's rise again fills the air. Christian leaders believe this is because the signs of his coming—heresy, apostasy, and iniquity—have reached unparalleled levels. So is the coming of the Antichrist right around the corner? In this powerful book, Antichrist and the End Times, Fr. Joseph Iannuzzi takes a hard look at this prophecy, its history, and the conditions necessary to bring about its fulfillment, offering readers a unique glimpse at an eschatological mystery rooted in the Book of Revelation. This is a book you won't be able to put down!

This book reveals how anti-Semitism, racism, and beliefs of cultural superiority can blind the minds of those who try to interpret the Jewish prophetic books. It does not stop there ...it takes the quantum leap to go where few have ever gone before

...back to the Jewish roots of the Christian faith for an accurate presentation of the book of Revelation from a First Century Jewish Christian perspective. If one examines church history closely, he should also discover that anti-Semitism is the root of Western church teachings, which relegate the Tribulation period for the Jewish nation, while the European Gentile churches escape through the rapture. Which is correct, Pre-Tribulation, Mid-Tribulation, Post-Tribulation, A-Millennial, Post-Millennial, or Preterist Rapture views? Tribulation or Triumph? dispels all myths and biased traditions to weigh the evidence.

Who are the 24 elders in the book of Revelation? What is the church's destiny as set forth in Revelation? Is the Lord Jesus ever set forth as an angel? Who are the 144,000 set forth as the preachers in the tribulation period? Which beast is the Antichrist? Is Babylon a literal Babylon or as many say a pseudonym for Rome? Is the magnificent city of chapter 21 a literal city or a figure for the church? Many believers in the Lord Jesus search the Scriptures as they take an interest in the great truth of His return. The book of Revelation is very prominent in this regard being God's last word to His children on this theme. There are no doubt many differing thoughts as to the interpretation of the themes set forth, but God has written for every believer to understand His mind regarding this world and the judgment it will know, as well as the glories that will be enjoyed by the Lord Jesus in the day of His manifestation. The purpose of this commentary is to help the saints understand the mind of God, while increasing our knowledge of coming events. These things are written to draw out our affections to Christ and to glorify the Lord who will soon appear and unite us to Himself for ever.

Antichrist and the End Times Christian Faith Publishing, Inc.

Revelation Now is an overview of the New Testament Book of Revelation with Old Testament references. It offers apocalyptic perspectives on what global life is like in a changing world while it also provides fresh insights on human behavior under turbulence and duress. Through insightful passages of scripture, contemporary conditions in the world and analysis of human personality, the book deals with global society, world governance, ancient world history, and faith challenges. The book begins by dealing with the historical context of world empires during the time when ancient nations were active participants in the collective life of a developing Hebrew people. It presents a more comprehensive view of the role of ancient empires in the theological drama of faith versus the influence of nations interacting with Israel, while it addresses the hidden role of empire influence as it affects faith and people committed to God. In summation, Revelation Now progresses from examining the historic seven churches of Asia Minor to the actions of a disguised beastly power that affects world ideology, religion, and materialistic commerce. Ultimately, the purpose of the book is to bring deeper enlightenment in analyzing the contemporary plight of humanity.

Tribulations and Triumph Christian Faith Publishing, Inc.

The seven-year Tribulation is a time much spoken of in the Scriptures and is the focal point of Jesus' Olivet Discourse. As we are coping with pandemic and global warming many believe we are at the last hour before the end of the age. God made the sun to rule the day but the moon and the stars to rule the night. Jesus said the night is coming when no man can work. This night period is the final week of Daniels 70 week prophesy in Daniel 9:24. The church needs a clear picture of what Jesus says is going to happen in this period. Christ is the light of the world. As we follow Him we too can lead many to righteousness. This book is about being on the alert so that when the master comes we may hear the words, well done good and faithful servant. This book hopefully will offer some guidelines for our watch.
