The Wayfinders Oxford IB Diploma Programme

'A Robot shall not injure a human being, or through inaction allow a human being to come to harm'. That's Asimov's celebrated First Law of Robotics. And in the 21st century, all domestic robots are programmed according to that Law. But something had gone terribly wrong with Tik-Tok's 'asimov circuits', and he sets out to injure as many people as possible - preferably fatally - while maintaining the exterior of a mild-mannered artist and a sincere campaigner for robot rights. So, like any self-respecting crook and murderer, he moves into politics, becoming the first robot candidate for Vice-President of the United States. Tik-Tok follows his maniacal progress from humble beginnings to the top of the heap - or almost. Because in his devious cunning, there was one element that Tik-Tok had forgotten... Winner of the BSFA Award for best novel, 1983

A History of the World in 100 Objects Hodder Education

Why does everything sound better if it's said in French? That fascination is at the heart of The Story of French, the first history of one of the most beautiful languages in the world that was, at one time, the pre-eminent language of literature, science and diplomacy. In a captivating narrative that spans the ages, from Charlemagne to Cirque du Soleil, Jean-Benoît Nadeau and Julie Barlow unravel the mysteries of a language that has maintained its global influence despite the rise of English. As in any good story, The Story of French has spectacular failures, unexpected successes and bears traces of some of history's greatest figures: the tenacity of William the Conqueror, the staunchness of Cardinal Richelieu, and the endurance of the Lewis and Clark expedition. Through this colorful history, Nadeau and Barlow illustrate how French acquired its own peculiar culture, revealing how the culture of the language spread among francophones the world over and yet remains curiously centered in Paris. In fact, French is not only thriving—it still has a surprisingly strong influence on other languages. As lively as it is fascinating, The Story of French challenges long held assumptions about French and shows why it is still the world's other global language.

A comprehensive writing text for students in all disciplines.

Covers every aspect of the writing process, from coming up with an idea to the final written product, whether it be an essay, exam essay, tutorial paper, or report. Illustrates each stage of the process of writing with examples and models. Offers strategies for the "prewriting stage": thinking the question through, defining a purpose, selecting evidence, and choosing a presentation structure; for the writing stage: constructing introductions and conclusions, sustaining a line of argument, and choosing an appropriate level of technicality or generality; and for the editing stage: reworking sentences, ensuring that each paragraph has a focus, and that the argument flows well throughout the paper. Contains notes on referencing systems, bibliographies, and on punctuation and spelling. Includes many examples of good writing drawn from a wide variety of subjects.
