Roman Briggs has built a life for himself in Siren's Cove. He restored the Sugar Cones Ice Cream Parlor and turned it into a popular stop along the boardwalk. He has everything he needs until a certain blue-eyed woman wanders back into his life. Seer and witch Peyton Woods isn't sure why her latest visions feature a man and boy she's never met. Determined to find out, she casts a spell that leads her to a small beach town in Maine and, to her utter surprise, the man who broke her heart eight years earlier. Peyton's left with one question. Why didn't her magic show her him?

The most important commentary on Vajrayana from the founder of the Dalai Lama's school of Buddhism. The Brilliantly Illuminating Lamp of the Five Stages (rim Inga rab tu gsal ba'i sgron me) is Tsong Khapa's most important commentary on the perfection stage practices of the Esoteric Community (Guhyasamaja), the tantra he considered fundamental for the practice of the "father tantra" class of unexcelled yoga tantras. It draws heavily on Nagarjuna's Five Stages (Pañcakrama) and Aryadeva's Lamp that Integrates the Practices (Caryamelapakapradipa), as well as a vast range of perfection stage works included in the Tibetan canonical (Kangyur and Tengyur) collections. It is an important work for both scholars and practitioners. A reader of this work will find in it convincing evidence for Tsong Khapa's own yogic experience and attainment, in coordination with his better-known philosophical and scholarly achievements. The present revised edition of the work is a cornerstone of the Complete Works of Jey Tsong Khapa and Sons collection, a subset of the Treasury of the Buddhist Sciences series. Comprised of the collected works of Tsong Khapa (1357–1419) and his spiritual sons, Gyaltsap Darma Rinchen (1364–1432) and Khedrup Gelek Pelsang (1385–1438), the numerous works in this set of Tibetan treatises and supercommentaries are based on the thousands of works in the Tibetan Buddhist canon.

The Lost Heir Rudi Zimmerer
Knights of Sehaann embody responsibility, honor, and privilege. But Kyren has loftier goals. He wants a spot in the Royal Guard. It's among those elite warriors that he'll find purpose, reward for years of sword training, and the only family he has left. He's unsure, though, if the story of his past is true. And if his brazen audacity doesn't get him killed, his knighthood test just might. After a lifetime spent in obscurity in the country, Kyren knows nothing of palace etiquette or provincial politics. He was raised as a commoner, a farmer, a nobody. But the revelation of his true identity sends him chasing his dream of becoming a knight all the way to the Sehaannian capital. He hopes to connect with the brother he never knew he had. He wants to make a difference in the world. He has no idea what he's gotten himself into. Ani is an outcast. Separated from his family, disrespected by his peers, ignored by his masters, he's a slave striving to make a name for himself in a cutthroat world of selfish ambition. The nearest thing he has to a friend is the young boy who's adopted him as his reluctant mentor. Though he desperately craves companionship, he can't let anyone get too close. Intimacy is too risky. If anyone discovers why he tiptoes down darkened halls in the middle of the night, his life and his family will be forfeit. Two lonely souls brought together by chance—one dedicated to honor and duty and one weighed down by obligation. It's either the best partnership they could ever hope for or a disaster waiting to happen. As political tensions in Sehaann reach a breaking point, lines will be drawn, choices will be made, and split-second decisions will ignite a war. Both Kyren and Ani are searching for a place to belong. Gods willing, it won't be on either side of a battlefield. This work is intended for a mature audience and contains mature content. Beginning in the 1990s, author Talcyona Nova experienced severe health issues and symptoms that had become her norm. She suffered from migraines, fibromyalgia, rashes, problems digesting food, burning nerve pain, joint pain, at times a racing heartbeat and skipped heartbeats, and a general cytokine storm state of affairs. In Abyss to Bliss, she shares the story of her journey back to herself—her physical, emotional, and spiritual wholeness. The journey began with years of illness and disconnection from spirit but emerges, through many healing modalities and expansion of the mind and spirit, into wholeness and reconnection of her mind, body, and spirit, along with a rediscovered sense of life force energy and well-being. Nova narrates an account of her intriguing life story and how she combined intuitive senses, medical knowledge, and spirituality to rise above the abyss she found herself confined to for many years. She tells of her gritty determination to push beyond ordinary boundaries and to reclaim her wholeness of mind, body, and spirit. Abyss to Bliss will help you move more fully into your own empowerment, sovereignty, and well-being on every level. Stone Cold Oxford University Press, USA

The real history of man is the history of religion. The truth of the famous dictum of Max Muller, the father of the History of Religions, is nowhere so obvious as in Tibet. Western students have observed that religion and magic pervade not only the forms of Tibetan art, politics, and society but also every detail of ordinary human existence. And what is the all-pervading religion of Tibet? Buddhism of that country has been described to us, of course, but that does not mean the question has been answered. The unique importance of Stephan Beyer's work is that it presents the vital material ignored or slighted by others: the living ritual of Tibetan Buddhists. The reader is made a witness to cultic proceedings through which the author guides him carefully. He does not force one to accept easy explanations nor does he direct one's attention only to aspects that can be counted on to please. He leads one step by step, without omitting anything, through entire rituals, and interprets whenever necessary without being unduly obtrusive. Oftentimes, as in the case of the many hymns to the goddess Tara, the superb translations speak directly to the reader, and it is indeed as if the reader himself were present at the ritual.
