Single Tenant NNN Property vs. Multi-Tenant - Triple Net ... Single Tenant Nnn Investment New Single tenant net lease investments are also referred to as “NNN properties” or “Net Lease” properties. The NNN refers to the nature of the triple net lease, which requires the tenant to pay (in addition to the rent) property taxes, insurance, and maintenance on the property. NNN Investments | Risks of Buying Triple Net Lease

Properties Typically, a Single Tenant NNN property lease ranges from 10 to 25 years. Therefore, a NNN Lease Landlord or investor receives a predictable rental income from the single tenant for a long time, given that the underlying tenant business has good predictability of cash flow. Even when compared to other real estate investments, the cash flow is more predictable in NNN properties, this is because the rental rates rely on a long term lease agreement and the tenant pays for all the operating ... Single Tenant NNN Property vs. Multi-Tenant - Triple Net ... At Sands Investment Group, we're seeing single tenant net lease properties rise in popularity among investors who want to diversify their portfolio without taking on a lot of risk and responsibility in their investment. Single tenant NNN lease properties are more simplistic in nature since you're only dealing with one tenant, and usually over an extended time period.
