The global response to climate change will demand unprecedented international cooperation, deep economic transformation and resource transfers at a significant scale. Corruption threatens to jeopardise these efforts. Transparency International's Global Corruption Report: Climate Change is the first publication to comprehensively explore such corruption risks. More than fifty leading experts and practitioners contribute, covering four key areas: governance: investigating major governance challenges towards tackling climate change mitigating climate change: reducing greenhouse gas emissions with transparency and accountability adapting to climate change: identifying corruption risks in climate-proofing development, financing and implementation of adaptation forestry governance: responding to the corruption challenges plaguing the forestry sector, and how these challenges need to be integrated into current international strategies to halt deforestation and promote reforestation. The Global Corruption Report: Climate Change provides essential policy analysis to help policy-makers, practitioners and other stakeholders understand these risks and develop effective responses at a critical point in time when the main architecture for climate governance is being developed.

Les ouvrages de la collection Prépas Sciences sont le complément indispensable à la réussite en CPGE scientifiques. Ils ont été conçus et rédigés par des professeurs enseignant en CPGE scientifiques dans différents lycées de notre pays. Leur contenu a été discuté et pensé avec soin pour permettre la meilleure adéquation avec les attentes et les besoins des étudiants en classes préparatoires scientifiques. Pour intégrer, il faut assimiler le cours, en connaître les points fondamentaux et savoir le mettre en application dans des exercices ou des problèmes souvent ardues. Cette collection est conçue pour répondre à ces difficultés. Dans chaque chapitre, correspondant à peu près à une semaine de cours, le lecteur trouvera : - Le résumé de cours Il vous permettra d'accéder à une connaissance synthétique des notions. - Les méthodes Elles vous initieront aux techniques usuelles qu'il faut savoir mettre en place. - Le vrai/faux Il testera votre compréhension du cours et vous évitera de tomber dans les erreurs classiques. - Les exercices, avec des indications Souvent tirés d'annales de concours, ils vous entraîneront aux écrits comme aux oraux. - Les corrigés Toujours rédigés avec soin, ils vous aideront à progresser dans la résolution d'exercices. Ainsi, avec un seul livre par année et par matière, la collection Prépas Sciences vous permettra de surmonter les colles, d'affronter les DS, et elle vous guidera, jour après jour, dans votre cheminement vers la réussite aux concours.

How to Talk and Sell to the Brain Sciences industrielles de l'ingénieur MPSI - PCSI - 3e édition actualisée

Today, a company's capability to conceive and design quality prototypes and bring a variety of superior products to market quicker than its competitors is increasingly the focal point of competition, contend leading product development experts Steven Wheelwright and Kim Clark. Drawing on six years of in-depth, systematic, worldwide research, they present proven principles for developing the critical capabilities for speed, efficiency, and quality that have worked again and again in scores of successful Japanese, American, and European fast-cycle firms. The authors argue that to survive, let alone succeed, today's companies must construct a new "platform" -- with new methodologies -- on which they can compete. Using their model for development strategies, Wheelwright and Clark show that firms can create a solid architecture for the integration of marketing, manufacturing, and design functions for problem solving and fast action -- particularly during the critical design-build-test cycles of prototype creation. They demonstrate further how successful firms such as Honda in automobiles, Compaq in personal computers, Applied Materials in semi-conductors, Sony in audio equipment, The Limited in apparel, and Hill-Rom in hospital beds have employed recent methodologies to bring new products to market at break-neck speed. Such innovations include design for manufacturability, quality function deployment, computer-aided design, and computer-aided engineering. Finally, Wheelwright and Clark emphasize the importance of learning in the organization. Companies that consistently "design it right the first time" and follow a path of continuous improvement in product and process development have a formidable edge in the crucial race to market.

Chip Block, the hero of Parts, is back, and still worried about falling apart based on the things he hears. This time he's made a list of all the strange, crazy things he's heard people say: "I lost my head." "My nose is running." "I sang my heart out. . . ." It's scary stuff, but he has a plan for making sure he doesn't accidentally leave any of his parts behind. A hilarious sequel to the wildly popular Parts and More Parts.

The Discipline of Market Leaders OUP Oxford

Neuromarketing in Action provides an in-depth review of how the brain functions and the ways in which it unconsciously influences consumer behaviour. It shows both the scientific frameworks and the practical applications of this increasingly popular marketing tool. Referencing many global brands such as Aston Martin, Hermes, Virgin, Facebook, Ralph Lauren and Fuji, the authors, whose background covers both neuroscience and marketing, showcase the latest thinking on brain function and intelligence, and on the subconscious influences on consumer behaviour. Neuromarketing in Action then examines the ways in which marketing efficiency can be improved through the satisfaction of the customer's senses, emotions, memory and conscience and looks at the impact on current marketing activities such as selling methods, sensory marketing and product modification, and on future strategies like value innovation, sensory brands, increased interaction with social networks and permission marketing. Le Monde Editions Ellipses

Cet ouvrage présente les concepts fondamentaux de modélisation

multiphysique à paramètres localisés.

Cette approche permet de modéliser des systèmes technologiques multidomains de type mécatronique et donne la possibilité de simuler le comportement de systèmes avant que la géométrie CAO détaillée ne soit disponible. Elle est implémentée aujourd'hui par de nombreux logiciels : Simscape™ (Matlab®), AMESim, VHDL-AMS, Dymola (Modelica), OpenModelica (Modelica), etc. L'approche adoptée est de partir des concepts physiques pour aller ensuite vers les modèles et leur implémentation numérique et finir par leur analyse et leur utilisation en conception. Modélisation multiphysique des systèmes technologiques expose via des exemples pratiques les principaux concepts menant à la mise en place et à l'utilisation de modèles stationnaires et transitoires à paramètres localisés. La plupart de ces exemples sont réalisés à l'aide du langage Modelica mais peuvent facilement s'implémenter dans d'autres environnements.
