The book consists of a selection of papers presented at the Asia-Pacific Research Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities. It contains essays on current legal issues in law and justice, and their role and transformation in a globalizing world. Topics covered include human rights, criminal law, good governance, democracy, foreign investment, and regional integration. The conference focused on Asia and the Pacific, two regions where law has taken an important position in creating and shaping the regional integrations, new legal institutions, and norms. This reconfirms the idea that the legal system is extremely important in the global world. This book provides new insights and new horizons on how law and justice took part in globalizing human interaction, especially in the Asia-Pacific region.

"Karya mengenai Islamisme kaum muda ini terbit pada waktu yang tepat, di saat sebagian muslim sedang asyik-asyiknya menggunakan agama yang suci ini untuk tujuan-tujuan politik kekuasaan yang sering terlepas dari misi mulia agama itu sendiri." Prof. Dr. Ahmad Syafii Maarif (Ketua Umum PP Muhammadiyah 1998-2005, Pendiri Maarif Institute for Culture and Humanity) "Kebangkitan Islamisme di kampus, khususnya UGM dan UI, sangat kompleks. Fenomena ini terkait bukan hanya dengan perubahan politik nasional dan politik kampus, tetapi juga dengan dinamika umat Islam Indonesia. Dalam konteks itu, buku ini memberi kontribusi penting ke arah pemahaman lebih baik tentang pertumbuhan dan dinamika Islamisme di kampus UGM dan UI yang, by extension, bukan tidak banyak komonalitasnya dengan kampus-kampus lain di tanah air. Memandang cakupannya, karya ini menjadi literatur penting yang wajib dibaca dalam subjek ini." Prof. Dr. Azyumardi Azra (Commander of the Order of British Empire, intelektual publik, dan anggota Komisi Kebudayaan Akademi Ilmu Pengetahuan Indonesia/KK AIPI) "Di antara karya-karya keserjanaan mutakhir yang membahas tentang perkembangan dan transformasi gerakan Tarbiyah di Indonesia, buku karya Zaki Arrobbi menawarkan banyak kebaruan terutama dalam perspektif, kerangka teoretis, data, dan analisis yang dikembangkan. Menggunakan teori gerakan sosial yang dipadukan dengan teori

Islamisme Asef Bayat, buku ini berhasil menunjukkan dinamika aktivisme kaum muda dalam gerakan Islamisme yang berkembang di kampus-kampus Indonesia. Buku ini merupakan karya yang harus dibaca oleh siapa pun yang meminati isu-isu kaum muda, Islamisme, dan politik elektoral. Ia juga layak dijadikan rujukan bagi para peneliti yang ingin mendalami arah perkembangan Islam politik di Indonesia. Prof. Dr. Noorhaidi Hassan (Direktur Pascasarjana UIN Sunan Kalijaga, Yogyakarta) "Buku ini sangat penting dan wajib menjadi rujukan bagi ilmuwan yang mengkaji tentang gerakan mahasiswa di Indonesia, terutama pasca-Reformasi 1998. Penulisnya sangat telaten, jeli, dan kritis terhadap persoalan yang dibahasnya. Dengan dua kombinasi itu, tema dan penulis, saya yakin buku ini akan menjadi rujukan dalam kurun yang sangat panjang. Selamat membaca!" Dr. Ahmad Najib Burhani (Peneliti Senior di Lembaga Ilmu Pengetahuan Indonesia /LIPI dan Research Fellow ISEAS-Yushof Ishak Institute, Singapura)

In Activist Archives Doreen Lee tells the origins, experiences, and legacy of the radical Indonesian student movement that helped end the thirty-two-year dictatorship in May 1998. Lee situates the revolt as the most recent manifestation of student activists claiming a political and historical inheritance passed down by earlier generations of politicized youth. Combining historical and ethnographic analysis of "Generation 98," Lee offers rich depictions of the generational structures, nationalist sentiments, and organizational and private spaces that bound these activists together. She examines the ways the movement shaped new and youthful ways of looking, seeing, and being—found in archival documents from the 1980s and 1990s; the connections between politics and place; narratives of state violence; activists' experimental lifestyles; and the uneven development of democratic politics on and off the street. Lee illuminates how the interaction between official history, collective memory, and performance came to define youth citizenship and resistance in Indonesia's transition to the post-Suharto present.

This volume addresses the need for an international perspective on global education, and provides alternate voices to the theme of global education. The editors asked international educators in different contexts to indicate how their own experience of global education addresses the broad and contested concepts associated with this notion. Following the lead of the internationally acknowledged authors from North America, Europe, Africa, Australia, and Asia, perspectives were provided on a wide variety of contexts including tertiary education, and teacher education; various pedagogies for global education, including digital pedagogies; and curriculum development at school, tertiary and community levels. Contesting and Constructing International Perspectives in Global Education explores the tensions inherent in discussions of global education from a number of facets including spatial, pedagogical, temporal, social and cultural; and provides critical, descriptive and values-laden interpretations. The book is divided into five sections, "Temporal and Spatial Views of Global Education"; "Telling National Stories of Global Education"; "Empowering Citizens for Global Education"; "Deconstructing Global Education"; and "Transforming Curricula for Global Education". It is envisaged as a starting point for a stronger international conception of global education and a way to build a conversation for the future of global education in a neo-liberal and less internationally confident time.

This book places Indonesia at the forefront of the global debate about the impact of 'disruptive' digital technologies. Digital technology is fast becoming the core of life, work, culture and identity. Yet, while the number of Indonesians using the Internet has followed the upward global trend, some groups—the poor, the elderly, women, the less well-educated, people living in remote communities—are disadvantaged. This interdisciplinary collection of essays by leading researchers and scholars, as well as e-governance and e-commerce insiders, examines the impact of digitalisation on the media industry, governance, commerce, informal sector employment, education, cybercrime, terrorism, religion, artistic and cultural expression, and much more. It presents groundbreaking analysis of the impact of digitalisation in one of the world's most diverse, geographically vast nations. In weighing arguments about the opportunities and challenges presented by digitalisation, it puts the very idea of a technological 'revolution' into critical perspective.

Puisi-puisi saya dalam antologi ini secara khusus memaklumkan tema lokalitas, baik itu konstelasi sejarah, mitos, atau objek pariwisata. Lokalitas sebagai dasar penciptaan bukan semata dalam rangka mengagungkan alam sekitar, atau mempromosikan kepada publik agar punya nilai yang layak jual. Lebih dari itu, lokalitas adalah panggung pengindraan yang memunculkan respons intuitif yang lebih sinergis dengan pergulatan teks. Teks yang menuntut penuturan diksi yang metaforis dan alegoris, serta bumbu rima yang koheren akan mudah diwujudkan ketika diserap langsung dari alam sekitar yang bisa diindra. Paduan antara pengindraan secara faktual dengan olah imajinasi biasanya lebih potensial untuk menghadirkan ruh di dalam sebuah puisi, sehingga puisi tercipta bukan semata sebagai kata-kata indah yang memunculkan kenikmatan auditorial belaka, namun akan menjadi medium yang menampilkan potret sekaligus artefak antropologis pada zamannya. Itulah yang saya harapkan dari puisi-puisi saya di buku ini. A. Warits Rovi

Banyak Buku yang ditulis untuk mengungkap dan membantah paham Islam Liberal, namun buku ini terasa lebih berbeda dan istimewa, karena ditulis oleh sejarawan muda dengan mengungkap latar belakang sejarah secara lengkap tentang pertarungan pemikiran antara para pengusung paham Islam Liberal dengan kelompok aktivis dan intelektual dari gerakan dakwah di negeri ini. Sebagai buku yang berasal dari disertasi penulisnya di Universitas Indonesia (UI), karya ini memiliki bobot ilmiah yang baik, karena sudah diuji secara akademis. Penulis merekam segala peristiwa, wacana, dan adu argumentasi yang dilontarkan dari kedua belah pihak, kemudian memberikan analisa dan penjelasannya dengan bahasa yang sangat mengalir dan mudah dipahami. Buku ini adalah jejak sejarah dari kritik-kritik tajam dan bernas, terkait upaya-upaya yang dilakukan oleh para pengusung paham Islam Liberal. Karena itu, buku ini bisa menjadi dokumen yang sangat penting untuk dimiliki oleh kaum muslimin di Indonesia, khususnya para aktivis dakwah, dan kalangan akademis. Sangat sayang Anda melewatkannya! "Hal penting dan baru dari buku ini adalah rekaman lengkap kritik kaum intelektual muslim Indonesia terhadap pemikiran Islam Liberal sejak tahun 1970-an. Selain data yang selama ini jarang ditemukan dalam berbagai buku tentang Islam Liberal dan kritik atasnya." (Prof.Dr.K.H Didin Hafidhuddin, Msc, Guru Besar Institut Pertanian Bogor) "Para pengkritik Islam Liberal menggunakan secara baik literature karya para ulama dan pemikir Islam dalam bahasa Arab dan juga literature karya ilmuwan dan orientalis Barat. Saya menyebut baik terbitnya buku ini, mudah-mudahan menjadi pencerahan bagi umat Islam, terutama kalangan akademisi." (Prof.Dr.K.H Yunahar Ilyas, ketua PP Muhammadiyah)

Globalisation is more complex than ever. The effects of the global financial crisis and increased inequality have spurred anti-globalisation sentiment in many countries and encouraged the adoption of populist and inward-looking policies. This has led to some surprising results: Duterte, Brexit and Trump, to name a few. In Indonesia, the disappointment with globalisation has led to rising protectionism, a rejection of foreign interference in the name of nationalism, and economic policies dominated by calls for self-sufficiency. Meanwhile, human trafficking and the abuse of migrant workers show the dark side of globalisation. In this volume, leading experts explore key issues around globalisation, nationalism and sovereignty in Indonesia. Topics include the history of Indonesia's engagement with the world, Indonesia's stance on the South China Sea and the re-emergence of nationalism. The book also examines the impact of globalisation on poverty and inequality, labour markets and people, especially women.

It is said that school leavers in Indonesia are not able to speak English confidently. They have no courage to speak, even though they actually feel that they have something to say in their mind. They are afraid to make mistakes when speaking because they never feel happy with their English grammar and vocabulary at school. English for Everyday Speaking is directed at those who have learned English and have no courage to speak but want to practice their spoken English. This book is not only suitably used by high school students, university students, language centers, English course learners and English speaking club members as a main course book for speaking, but also for employees, workers, staff, teachers, employers or members of a family as a core handbook for language practice during their leisure time. This book covers very common daily topics which everyone is familiar with, such as Daily Activities, Personal Information, Family Life, Culture, Sport, Housemaids, Hobbies and Interests, Smoking and Drinking, Music, Health, Education, School Life, Love, Holiday, Food and Drink, Marriage, Sex, Demonstrations & Strikes, Terrorism, Crime and Prisons, Debates, etc. The questions, which are intended to arouse learners to speak, are generally simple to answer for ordinary learners. They need practical ideas or knowledge but do not need deep academic or scientific knowledge to answer them. However, if the group of learners have more advanced knowledge about the topics and are interested to delve deeper on the topics, there are also some possibilities to do so. English for Everyday Speaking is designed by an experienced English teacher. In addition, these materials have been tried out at STP Bandung, STBA, Maranatha University, the Center at Jl. Setiabudhi, Bandung and some other language centers.

The Hadhramis of Yemen have migrated for centuries in large numbers, establishing a diaspora that extends around the Indian Ocean, Saudi Arabia and the other Gulf States. This migration has deeply affected the host countries as well as Hadhramaut itself. Yet the region has not been able to use its population size, capabilities or resources to wield significant political influence in successive Yemeni regimes. This book examines the people of the Hadhrami diaspora, who travelled as religious scholars, traders, labourers and soldiers, to understand their enduring influence and identity. In doing so, the book explores key aspects of their history, including the impact of Yemeni nationalist movements, the significance of land reforms, the importance of social and tribal origins and how the Hadhrami resisted European domination as a Muslim community. Although a distinctive part of geographical Yemen, Hadhramaut was not regarded as a Yemeni political entity until the twentieth century. This research asks if the recent turmoil in Yemen following the Arab Spring, the growth of Al-Qa'ida and ISIS, and war involving a coalition led by Saudi Arabia, will produce even greater instability in the region or perhaps lead to a united Yemen, a restored South Yemen or even to Hadhramaut as an independent state.

BASABASI

As the first directly elected Indonesian president, Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono (SBY) served at a crucial juncture in Indonesia's history. Succeeding the three short presidencies of BJ Habibie, Abdurrahman Wahid and Megawati Sukarnoputri, his presidency had a lot to prove. While critical assessment of SBY's domestic policies have been undertaken, less attention has been paid to his foreign policy. This volume seeks to fill this gap by examining key foreign policy issues during SBY's tenure, including bilateral relations, Indonesia's involvement in international organizations, and pivotal issues such as international labour and terrorism. The book provides an assessment of the direction of his foreign policy and management style, paying particular attention to his concerns over Indonesia's territorial integrity and sovereignty, the significance of international institutions, and Indonesia's right to lead.

REQUESTS OF THE SKY forgive me... if i'm not as beautiful as i used to be and no longer blue because all your actions too you cut down all my pillars to decorate your furniture oh the virtuous beings my request is only one keep my friend this earth like you take care of yourself if you realize this sickness of the earth is your pain the anguish of the earth is your misery once again, keep the earth! Jepara, February 24, 2005 § The poem was published in MOP magazine, May, 2005. Request of the Sky is a book of poems by Lasinta Ari Nendra Wibawa. Lasinta is one of the young writers who are quite productive writing in print mass media. Throughout his authorship career beginning in early 2005, his writings have spread across 73 local and national mass media and won dozens of awards. Request of the Sky contains selected poems entirely in local and national media from early 2005-2012. The process of authorship that can be spelled out long enough to make Lasinta more mature in the work. No exaggeration if the poems in this book further confirm that the work of Lasinta is quite successful in coloring Indonesian literary blantika, especially newspaper literature. Thus, reading Request of the Sky can be a means of adding a collection of literary material to readers who want to learn to write poetry or an agitated poet to simply conduct a comparative study of the work. Because reading other people's work can make our eyes open to assess what kind of quality our work.
