Le guide Kauderwelsch sono diverse!
 Perché? Perché vi metterà in grado di parlare e capire la gente veramente. Come funziona? Oltre a quello che presentano tutti i corsi di lingua, cioè vocaboli, modelli di frasi, ecc., i volumi della serie Kauderwelsch si distinguono per le particolarità seguenti: * La grammatica si limita all'essenziale, cosicché è possibile - senza studiare troppo - cominciare a parlare, anche se non perfettamente. * Tutte le frasi vengono tradotte in italiano due volte: da una parte parola per parola, dall'altra parte in „buon" italiano. Così il sistema della lingua straniera viene capito molto bene. In una lingua straniera differiscono p. es. la costruzione della frase e il modo d'esprimersi molto dall'italiano. Senza questo tipo di traduzione è praticamente impossibile cambiare velocemente alcune parole in una frase. * Le autrici e gli autori della serie Kauderwelsch sono „giramondi" che hanno appreso la lingua nel paese. Perciò sanno precisamente come parla la gente nella vita quotidiana. Il suo modo d'esprimersi è per lo più molto più semplice e più diretto p. es. della lingua della letteratura. * Particolarmente importante sono il linguaggio del corpo, gesti, segni e regole di comportamento nel paese turistico. Senza questi informazioni anche i conoscitori della lingua non vengono in contatto con la gente. Per questo in tutti i volumi della serie si pone attenzione a questo tipo di comunicazione. * Le guide di dizione della serie Kauderwelsch non sono testi scolastici ma molto più di un corso di lingua! Investendo poco tempo e imparando alcuni vocaboli otterrete informazioni e farete esperienze che altrimenti rimangono nascoste agli altri turisti. +++ Das bewährte Kauderwelsch-Prinzip mit Wort-für-Wort-Übersetzung eignet sich auch hervorragend zur Vermittlung der deutschen Sprache. Dieses Buch wendet sich an alle, die die italienische Sprache beherrschen, und die schnell und unkompliziert Deutsch lernen möchten.

"Powerful . . . The vivid descriptions of the Sardinian landscape are a fitting complement to the heroine's conflicted heart" (Kirkus Reviews, starred review). As this compelling novel opens, a young unnamed woman reflects on the life of her bewitching, eccentric, and fiercely emotional grandmother, whose abiding search for love spans much of the twentieth century. In 1943, as American bombs fall on the city of Cagliari, she is thirty and considered an old maid, still living at home with her parents. But when the bombing ceases, and despite her protests, her father forces her to marry the first man to propose, an older widower she doesn't love. After suffering several miscarriages, she is sent for treatment at a spa on the mainland, where she falls in love with an injured Italian army veteran. Back home, she gives birth to a son. She never reveals the affair to her husband—but decades later, she returns to the mainland and travels to her former lover's hometown of Milan. Dressed in her finest coat and shoes, she wanders the streets in search of the elusive veteran . . . Set against a backdrop of rugged mountains and Italian villages lost in time, this international bestselling novel is a multigenerational family saga about love, lust, and country. "Agus's descriptions of the everyday are as beautiful and haunting as her portrayal of life's most dramatic episodes. Add an unexpected ending and the result is a graceful, powerful book." —Publishers Weekly (starred review)

A Midsummer Night's Dream Hueber

An overview of the art historical antecedents to virtual reality and the impact of virtual reality on contemporary conceptions of art. Although many people view virtual reality as a totally new phenomenon, it has its foundations in an unrecognized history of immersive images. Indeed, the search for illusionary visual space can be traced back to antiquity. In this book, Oliver Grau shows how virtual art fits into the art history of illusion and immersion. He describes the metamorphosis of the concepts of art and the image and relates those concepts to interactive art, interface design, agents, telepresence, and image evolution. Grau retells art history as media history, helping us to understand the phenomenon of virtual reality beyond the hype. Grau shows how each epoch used the technical means available to produce maximum illusion. He discusses frescoes such as those in the Villa dei Misteri in Pompeii and the gardens of the Villa Livia near Prima Porta, Renaissance and Baroque illusion spaces, and panoramas, which were the most developed form of illusion achieved through traditional methods of painting and the mass image medium before film. Through a detailed analysis of perhaps the most important German panorama, Anton von Werner's 1883 The Battle of Sedan, Grau shows how immersion produced emotional responses. He traces immersive cinema through Cinerama, Sensorama, Expanded Cinema, 3-D, Omnimax and IMAX, and the head mounted display with its military origins. He also examines those characteristics of virtual reality that distinguish it from earlier forms of illusionary art. His analysis draws on the work of contemporary artists and groups ART+COM, Maurice Benayoun, Charlotte Davies, Monika Fleischmann, Ken Goldberg, Agnes Hegedues, Eduardo Kac, Knowbotic Research, Laurent Mignonneau, Michael Naimark, Simon Penny, Daniela Plewe, Paul Sermon, Jeffrey Shaw, Karl Sims, Christa Sommerer, and Wolfgang Strauss. Grau offers not just a history of illusionary space but also a theoretical framework for analyzing its phenomenologies, functions, and strategies throughout history and into the future.

This edited volume sets the groundwork for a dialogue between transformative learning and continental theories of Bildung in adulthood. Both theoretical frameworks bring meaning to the complex learning process of individuals as they develop a more critical worldview. In this volume, a variety of authors from different countries and theoretical backgrounds offer new understandings about Bildung and transformative learning through discussion of theoretical analyses, educational practices, and empirical research. As a result, readers gain greater insight into these theories and related implications for teaching for change. From the various chapters an exciting relationship between both theories begins to emerge and provides impetus for greater discussion and further research about two important theories of change in the field of adult education. /div

This book presents two plays, both of which are translated into English for the first time. In Voyage to the Sonorous Land, or The Art of Asking, a cockeyed optimist and a spoilsport lead a group of characters to the hinterland of their imaginations, where they search not for the right answers but for the questions. The Hour We Knew Nothing of Each Other takes place in a city square where more than four hundred characters pass by one another without speaking a single word.

From the Land of the Moon George

Weidenfeld & Nicholson

This is the first English translation of the seminal book by Katharina Reiß and Hans Vermeer, Grundlegung einer allgemeinen Translationstheorie, first published in 1984. The first part of the book was written by Vermeer and explains the theoretical foundations and basic principles of skopos theory as a general theory of translation and interpreting or 'translational action', whereas the second part, penned by Katharina Reiß, seeks to integrate her text-typological approach, first presented in 1971, as a 'specific theory' that focuses on those cases in which the skopos requires equivalence of functions between the source and target texts. Almost 30 years after it first appeared, this key publication is now finally accessible to the next generations of translation scholars. In her translation, Christiane Nord attempts to put skopos theory and her own concept of 'function plus loyalty' to the test, by producing a comprehensible, acceptable text for a rather heterogeneous audience of English-speaking students and scholars all over the world, at the same time as acting as a loyal intermediary for the authors, to whom she feels deeply indebted as a former student and colleague.

This lively, beginning German text is the perfect choice for those who want to move in a more communicative direction without abandoning a focus on grammar. Deutsch: Na Klar! uses a solid four-skills approach with a difference: the vocabulary, grammar, and reading sections are integrated with authentic materials, allowing students to learn language and culture simultaneously. German materials (advertisements, menus, newspaper articles, etc.) are used to present new vocabulary, introduce grammar points, and launch communicative activities. A listening-comprehension tape is tied to the text-book to help students improve listening skills.

Die Übersetzung von Rechtstexten stellt selbst für erfahrene Übersetzer eine große Herausforderung dar, weil neben der linguistischen Qualifikation auch fundierte juristische Kenntnisse unerlässlich sind. Aus diesem Grund folgt das Buch einem interdisziplinären Ansatz: Einerseits werden die Grundlagen verschiedener Bereiche des deutschen Rechtssystems erörtert, andererseits wird ein reiches Inventar an Übersetzungsbeispielen geboten. Wichtige Komponenten des Buches bilden die dem Wortschatz gewidmeten Übungsteile und das Fehlerkorpus, welches sich aus authentischen Fehlleistungen Studierender zusammensetzt, die die Autorin in ihrer langjährigen universitären Lehrtätigkeit gesammelt hat. Besonderes Augenmerk wird der Förderung des autonomen Lernprozesses gewidmet, wodurch die Studierenden die Fähigkeit erlangen, ihre Rechtskenntnisse übersetzungsbezogen zu vertiefen.

A history of German film dealing with individual films as works of art has long been needed. Existing histories tend to treat cinema as an economic rather than an aesthetic phenomenon; earlier surveys that do engage with individual films do not include films of recent decades. This book treats representative films from the beginnings of German film to the present. Providing historical context through an introduction and interchapters preceding the treatments of each era's films, the volume is suitable for semester- or year-long survey courses and for anyone with an interest in German cinema. The films: The Student of Prague - The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari - The Last Laugh - Metropolis - The Blue Angel - M - Triumph of the Will - The Great Love - The Murderers Are among Us - Sun Seekers - Trace of Stones - The Legend of Paul and Paula - Solo Sunny - The Bridge - Young Tress - Aguirre, The Wrath of God - Germany in Autumn - The Marriage of Maria Braun - The Tin Drum - Marianne and Juliane - Wings of Desire -

A Critical History of German Film Europa Editions

How do schools worldwide treat the Holocaust as a subject? In which countries does the Holocaust form part of classroom teaching? Are representations of the Holocaust always accurate, balanced and unprejudiced in curricula and textbooks? This study, carried out by UNESCO and the Georg Eckert Institute for International Textbook Research, compares for the first time representations of the Holocaust in school textbooks and national curricula. Drawing on data which includes countries in which there exists no or little information about representations of the Holocaust, the study shows where the Holocaust is established in official guidelines, and contains a close textbook study, focusing on the comprehensiveness and accuracy of representations and historical narratives. The book highlights evolving practices worldwide and thus provides education stakeholders with comprehensive documentation about current trends in curricula directives and textbook representations of the Holocaust. It further formulates recommendations that will help policy-makers provide the educational means by which pupils may develop Holocaust literacy.
